

PROFESSIONAL WOMEN IN BUILDING COUNCIL

Join the Professional Women in Building Council

Our Mission:

The COHBA Professional Women in Building (PWB) Council promotes, enhances, and supports the home building industry and women within it through professional development, career advancement, political and community involvement, and recognition of member achievements.

Our council accomplishes this by:

- Acknowledging women and their achievements in the building industry
- Providing resources and training opportunities to help women achieve success
- Educating the public on the value of women working in the building industry
- Building coalitions to strengthen the voice of women within the industry

PWB Benefits:

- Advocacy
- Community Involvement
- Networking
- Fun Events
- Inspirational Speakers
- Lasting Professional & Personal relationships
- Exclusive Publications
- NAHB PWB membership
- Opportunity to mentor future women leaders in the construction industry
