A great place

TO LIVE, WORK AND PLAY

WELCOME TO WAYNESBORO!

Away from the bustle... close to the fun! Welcome to the greater Waynesboro area – where the city comes to relax. Whether you are looking to relocate your home or business, visiting, or just briefly passing through, I invite you to use this community guide to explore all that this area has to offer.

The greater Waynesboro area is a charming town full of rural heritage, unique architecture, historic landmarks, flourishing arts scene and thriving business and industry. Waynesboro was once ranked one of the 10 Best Places to Retire in Pennsylvania by the Real Estate Blog. The blog also named Waynesboro a top town in Pennsylvania for weather.

We love it here and think you will, too. Whether the reason you're here is for business or pleasure, welcome to our cozy town – where you'll soon discover is a great place to live, work and play.

Sincerely,

OUR MISSION

Enhancing our community by fostering business success, building connections, and providing resources.

RICH IN HISTORY RICH IN CULTURE RICH IN COMMUNITY

Our Community

Population by Municipality

Waynesboro is the kind of hometown where neighbors know your name and local businesses anchor daily life. Once a busy stop between Baltimore and Pittsburgh, our community grew up around hardworking tool and machine makers and the small enterprises that supported them, creating a tradition of craftsmanship and entrepreneurship that continues today. This legacy lives on in our walkable downtown, family-owned shops, professional services, and thriving small manufacturers. With historic buildings and lovingly restored homes, modern shops, a growing food and craft beer scene, and strong regional access for commuters and commerce. Location is still one of our greatest strengths: with quick access to Interstate 81 and nearby metropolitan areas, Franklin County's economy is diverse and growing, with strong manufacturing, healthcare, education, retail and hospitality sectors. Waynesboro offers both the welcoming feel of a small town and the opportunities of a vibrant business community.

Whether you're here to build a business, raise a family, or simply enjoy small-town life with big-city access, Waynesboro is truly a place to LIVE. WORK. PLAY.

Our Weather

Waynesboro enjoys four distinct seasons without the extremes you find in many other places in Pennsylvania. Summers are pleasantly warm, with July days made for backyard barbecues, pool time, and evening walks. Winters tend to be on the milder side, with enough chill for the occasional snowman and sled ride but plenty of crisp, sunny days too. In between, spring brings blooming trees and perfect picnic weather, while fall shows off with clear skies and vibrant amber and scarlet foliage. It all adds up to a climate that makes it easy to get outside and enjoy where you live, year-round.

SUPPORTING YOU. SERVING OUR COMMUNITY.

Welcome to Mont Alto, where iron heritage blends with educational roots. Originally Funkstown (est. early 1800s), it grew with the 1872 Mont Alto Railroad and merged with Alto Dale by 1879, incorporating as a borough in 1913.

Abolitionist John Brown reportedly taught Sunday School (~1859) at Emmanuel Chapel (built 1854), now near Penn State Mont Alto. In 1893, the state bought the ironworks lands; Dr. Joseph T. Rothrock founded the Pennsylvania State Forest Academy there in 1903, merging with Penn State in 1929 to evolve into today's campus.

Welcome to Quincy Township, neighboring Mont Alto Borough and rich in rural charm. Established in 1800, it saw the Mont Alto Railroad extend to Waynesboro in 1878, thanks to G.B. Weistling and others—leaving a legacy of historic homes, picturesque farms, and orchards.

Its western half lies in the fertile Great Appalachian Valley (elevations 650–1,100 ft), while the eastern slopes of South Mountain rise to Snowy Mountain's 2,800+ ft summit. The Appalachian Trail winds through the east.

 Township Office 11798 Buchanan Trail East, Waynesboro, PA 17268

Consisting of 39.4 square miles surrounding the Borough of Waynesboro, Washington Township was organized in 1779. The township communities of Zullinger, Rouzerville, and Blue Ridge Summit were founded in 1868, while the area of Wayne Heights was laid out in the early 20th century.

After the creation of the railroad, Blue Ridge Summit became a resort town, boasting luxurious hotel accommodations for the wealthy that traveled there from the Washington, D.C., region to vacation.

Today, Washington Township is home to a number of historic sites, including 911 Tribute at Red Run Park, Harbaugh Church and Cemetery, Welty Mill Bridge, and the Civil War Battle of Monterey Pass.

Waynesboro was founded in 1749 when Scotsman John Wallace settled near the Antietam Creek. Wallace held title to 633 acres, almost one square mile. He called his land “Mount Vernon,” while others referred to it as “Wallacetown.” His son, John, later inherited the land after returning home from fighting in the Revolutionary War.

In 1797, John mapped out a town of 90 lots, which he named “Waynesburg” after his admired commander, General “Mad” Anthony Wayne. The town’s name was contested by several other Pennsylvania towns bearing the same name and the federal government soon ruled post offices in the same state could not have the same name. The town was incorporated as “Waynesborough,” which in 1831 was shortened to “Waynesboro.”

Historic Beginnings

ON THE FRONTIER

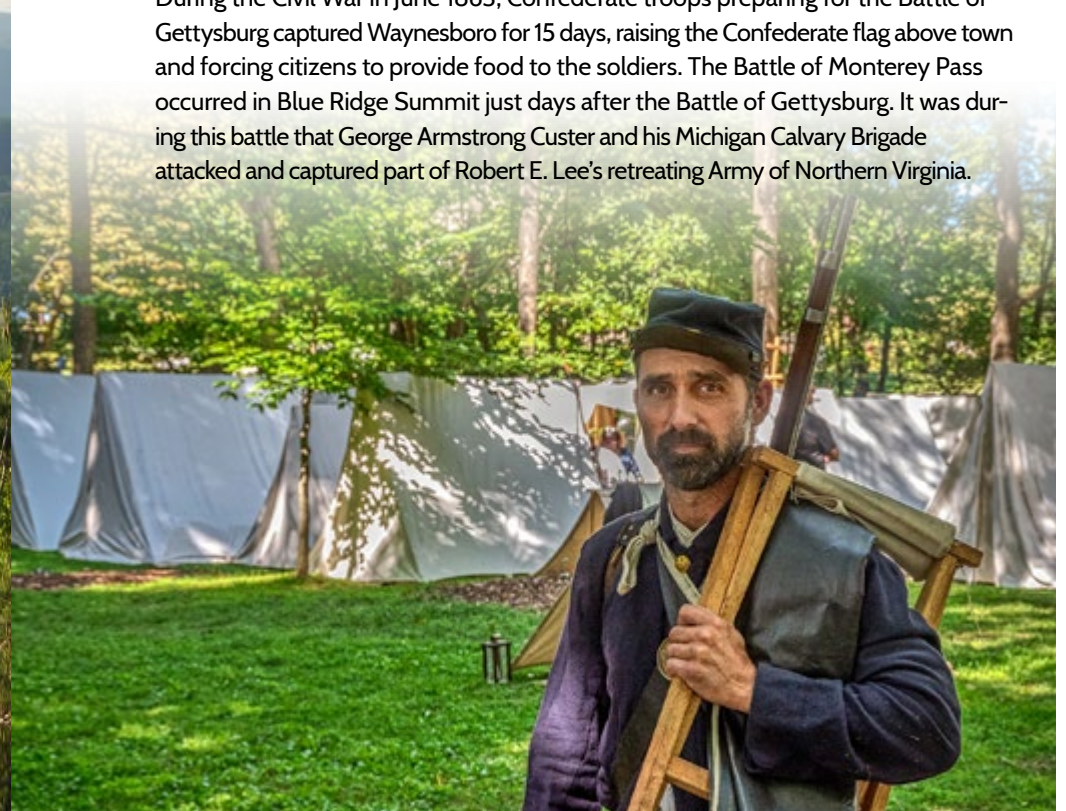

As the years continued, Waynesboro became a crossroads town and prospered by providing goods and services for the wagon trains traveling west. According to local lore, during the French and Indian War, two young girls, the Renfrew sisters, were attacked and killed by Native Americans while washing laundry in a creek near their home. The tale tells us several townspeople banded together to find those responsible for the girls' deaths and obtain the girls' remains so a proper burial could take place.

CIVIL WAR INVOLVEMENT

During the Civil War in June 1863, Confederate troops preparing for the Battle of Gettysburg captured Waynesboro for 15 days, raising the Confederate flag above town and forcing citizens to provide food to the soldiers. The Battle of Monterey Pass occurred in Blue Ridge Summit just days after the Battle of Gettysburg. It was during this battle that George Armstrong Custer and his Michigan Calvary Brigade attacked and captured part of Robert E. Lee's retreating Army of Northern Virginia.

Industry

FOUNDING INNOVATORS: In the mid-1800's Peter Geiser and George Frick opened machine shops in Waynesboro to design, develop and manufacture portable steam engines and threshing machines for the agriculture industry. As a result, supporting industries like threading and cylindrical grinding sprung up by brothers Abe and Frank Landis.

CURRENT POWERHOUSES: The initial Frick Company transitioned into the current Frick by Johnson Controls, a world supplier of commercial refrigeration equipment. D. L. George & Sons moved into Frank Landis' former Landis Tool property and is now a leading construction, transportation and manufacturing supplier. Abe Landis' threading business is now Landis Solutions LLC and continues to be a leading threading tool supplier to multiple industries. Grove, a division of Manitowoc, is a global leader in mobile cranes

INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM: The Waynesboro Area Industrial Heritage Trust is located on a quiet side street in a former Reformed Mennonite church designed by Frank Landis, one of the area's early industrial pioneers. The Museum was built in 1900 and is open to residents and visitors for special events and by appointment. Its mission is to provide insight into the community's rich industrial heritage.

Located at 235 Philadelphia Avenue, the Museum houses a collection of locally significant artifacts, drawings and photographs. For more information, Call 717-762-4460 or visit www.waynesboroindustrialtrust.org.

SALES TAX

If you hold a valid title issued in another state and have owned the vehicle six months or more before moving to Pennsylvania, you will not be required to pay any sales tax when you register your vehicle.

If you hold a valid title issued in another state and have owned the vehicle less than 6 months before moving to Pennsylvania, you will need to provide proof of sales tax paid to the previous titling jurisdiction or remit PA sales tax.

VEHICLE SAFETY INSPECTION

A newly-registered vehicle in Pennsylvania must receive a safety inspection within ten days of the registration date. Inspections are performed at official inspection stations (usually a repair garage or a service station with a repair shop.)

Equipment checks include: lights, brakes, horn, tires, safety belts, exhaust system, mirrors, tag mounting, suspension, turn signals, steering, glazing, wipers, and other major parts of your vehicle.

Inspection fees are posted at official inspection stations. These fees do not include repairs to correct vehicle defects.

EMISSION INSPECTION MAINTENANCE

Pennsylvania is one of many states required by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency to have a vehicle emissions inspection and maintenance program. The I/M program is a key part of the Commonwealth's strategy to improve its air quality.

Call the Drive Clean PA customer hotline at 1-800-265-0921 or visit its website at: www.drivecleanpa.state.pa.us to find out if the county your vehicle is registered in is required to participate in the emissions inspection program

DRIVER'S LICENSES

New residents are required to obtain a Pennsylvania driver's license within 60 days of establishing a permanent residence. To apply, you must appear in person at your local DMV office to fill out forms and take a vision test. You will need to present:

- » A driver's license from your previous state of residence that is valid or has expired no more than six months earlier
- » Social Security Card

If your license expired more than six months previously, you will have to present your birth certificate and Social Security Card; apply for a Pennsylvania Learner's Permit; and complete all required testing before you receive your license.

Once the license has been issued, you must surrender the license from your previous state of residence to personnel at the DMV.

REAL ID

Pennsylvanians will need a REAL ID-compliant driver's license/photo ID card, or another form of federally-acceptable identification (such as a valid passport or military ID) to board a domestic commercial flight or enter a federal building or military installation that requires ID.

Residents of Pennsylvania 10 years of age and older are entitled to a photo identification card. These cards provide a viable source of identification in lieu of a driver's license. To apply at a license center, you will need to provide proof of

YOUR VOTE COUNTS

When you visit the driver's license center, you will have the opportunity to register to vote. If you currently are a registered voter in the state of Pennsylvania, you will not need to re-register unless you have changed your name or address. If you do not register while at the driver's license center, voter registration forms can be printed from votespa.com.

Local Education

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Learners residing in the greater Waynesboro area have access to an exceptional public education in the Waynesboro Area School District. The district educates more than 4,300 students in four elementary schools (K-5), a middle school (6-8), and one senior high school (9-12). The WASD campus is composed of 4 elementary schools: Fairview Elementary, Hooverville Elementary, Mowrey Elementary, and Summitview Elementary, Waynesboro Area Middle School, and Waynesboro Area Senior High School.

The school district offers a comprehensive curriculum to meet the needs of a diverse student population. English Language Arts (ELA), mathematics, science, social studies, world languages, health, art, music, and physical education represent the core K-12 curriculum, Outdoor learning experiences and field trips enhance the elementary and secondary program. Special education services are provided for eligible students. The academic year begins in mid August and ends in May. The Waynesboro Area School District is dedicated to helping all our learners secure their First Choice post secondary goals in the workplace, trade school, college, or the military.

» LACKAWANNA COLLEGE

Welding and Fabrication Technology Program

Lackawanna College's Welding and Fabrication Technology program provides hands-on training for careers in Pennsylvania's construction, manufacturing, and infrastructure industries. Students gain experience in MIG, TIG, and stick welding, metal fabrication, blueprint reading, quality inspection, preparing them for roles such as welder, welder/fabricator, pipefitter, and pipeline welder.

Classes are small, with a 19:1 student-to-faculty ratio, allowing for individualized instruction from instructors who bring real-world experience from successful careers. Training takes place on professional equipment in classrooms, labs, and a fully equipped weld shop, ensuring students practice with the tools and technology used in the industry.

The program maintains strong connections with local employers who actively recruit graduates. Flexible day and evening schedules accommodate working adults. Financial aid options are available to help make education accessible.

Chambersburg Welding Training Center

The Chambersburg center at 1669 Opportunity Avenue offers specialized facilities and support for students pursuing welding careers.

Boyer Nurseries & Orchards

Family owned and operated business since 1900, when W.W. Boyer recognized the need for a local distributor for quality fruit trees for area growers. Since those early days, the nursery has grown to provide the homeowner with a wide selection of quality shrubs, evergreens, flowering plants, trees, and small fruits. Their Garden Center houses a complete line of chemicals, reference books, statuary, orchard supplies, and unusual quality gardening implements thus enabling the customer to purchase everything they need in one visit! Boyer Nurseries & Orchards, Inc. is unique in this area in that the customer has the option of purchasing nursery stock either balled and burlapped, in containers or bareroot at a substantial savings.

Fruit season begins mid-to-end of June with pick-your-own sweet cherries and blueberries and in the fall pick-your-own apples. Apricots, plums, peaches, pears and over 20 varieties of apples follow suit. The Boyers Fruit Market also offers fresh vegetables, melons, jams, jellies, honey, and local pottery.

Sugar Hollow Farm Alpacas

Greeted by a herd of Huacaya alpacas, Sugar Hollow Farm Alpacas has a friendly and unique welcoming party that makes guests feel like part of the family. Co-owners, Jay Brown and wife Kathy, are delighted to share their story about how the farm came to be one big happy family. “It all started in 2008 at a late summer fair in Lucketts, Virginia,” Jay begins. As the story goes, they stopped by the yarn vendor because Kathy loves to knit. This particular woman sold beautiful, soft, ‘and totally irresistible alpaca yarn,’ as Kathy puts it. They admired photos of the cute crias (baby alpacas) that had been born two weeks earlier, and learned alpacas are one of the easiest livestock to care for. Jay fondly recalls, “Without realizing it, we had found our retirement plan!”

Sugar Hollow Farm Alpacas is open to the public and encourages school groups to visit. Come learn more about these beautiful smart mammals that do not have top teeth, can eat two pounds of grass a day, hum to communicate, have distinct personalities, and the softest fleece.

Ivy Hill Farm

Fresh is what it's all about at Ivy Hill Farm – which has been in the Martin family for seven generations and continues today under the ownership of John (Steven) and Karen Martin. A pledge to carry on the tradition of growing quality fruits, vegetables, and livestock on the 150-acre farm once known as “Hospitality,” here you'll find everything from fruits and vegetables, herbs and bedding plants, to hanging baskets and other garden items. The retail store shelves specialty items such as nuts, jams, jellies and their very own home-made pressed cider. Ivy Hill Farm is about family and they welcome yours to one of their many events throughout the year: Farm Festival and Blessings of the Crops, Cider Press Party, Annual Apple Dessert Bake Off, and Christmas on the Farm. Nestled in the livestock barns you will find their Yorkshire hogs and chickens. Don't forget to check out “Harold” the unofficial trade mark known to all who visit the farm.

Celebrate 250 Years of America in Franklin County PA!

Happy 250th Birthday, America!

With more than 70 recognized historic sites and ties to influential Americans such as John Brown, Frederick Douglass, Martin Delany, Harriet Lane, and Zelda Barbour, Franklin County has every reason to celebrate during America's 250th year.

Established September 9, 1784

Franklin County became Pennsylvania's 14th county in 1784. What began as a frontier landscape of forts, farms, forests, and early settlements—home to roughly 12,500 people—has grown into a vibrant community of nearly 160,000 residents. Visitors now outnumber the population six to one, drawn by the same pleasures locals enjoy: an old-fashioned ice cream stop, a slice of shoo-fly pie, sticky buns warm from the oven, or a whoopie pie enjoyed while wandering through countryside, culture, and history.

Franklin County is the Flavor of America

A respite from the hectic pace, Franklin County offers an easy, unhurried way to enjoy:

- Beautiful valley vistas and views of the Blue Mountain and South Mountain
- Charming downtowns like Chambersburg, Greencastle, Mercersburg, Shippensburg, and Waynesboro
- Little hamlets tucked around the bend like Lemasters, Fort Loudon, Blue Ridge Summit, Rouzerville, Quincy, Mont Alto, and Fayetteville
- Legacy lands that hold Pennsylvania's cradle of conservation.
- Nearly 40 miles of the Appalachian Trail
- Cool, clear limestone streams with wild rainbow, brown, and Brook trout;
- State Parks of Mont Alto, Caledonia, Cowans Gap, and James Buchanan's Birthplace
- Fresh food at more than four dozen farmers markets, farm stands, farm stores, creameries, and honey spots
- Summer theatre at Totem Pole Playhouse and year-round music and entertainment at the Luhrs Center, Capitol Theatre, and Star Theatre
- Countless artisans and artists that fill galleries and boutique shops and contribute to more than 50 year-round festivals and holiday events

Explore Franklin County throughout the semiquincentennial year and let us show you who we are!

MEETING LOCAL NEEDS

Waynesboro Community and Human Services (WCHS) provides a variety of programs to ensure the needs of qualifying, low-income community members. Efforts extend from the Waynesboro Area to Greencastle-Antrim school districts.

WCHS services include a food bank, clothing bank, diaper bank, emergency financial assistance, information, and referrals.

In addition to its list of services, WCHS sponsors a yearly community Thanksgiving meal, delivering meals to shut-ins as needed, organizes an annual Christmas boxed meal program, and holiday adopt-a-family effort. These additional programs make certain low-income families and children receive warm meals and presents during the holiday season.
