

TYLER AREA BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

Code of Ethics

As a member of TABA in good standing, I believe in, and accept, the responsibilities and obligations inherent in providing quality building services. Basic to these ethical beliefs, I agree to abide by and support the following objectives:

I Pledge:

TO CONDUCT my business affairs with professionalism and skill.

TO PROVIDE a good building value.

TO PROTECT the consumer through the use of quality materials and building practices backed by integrity and service.

TO MEET my financial obligations in a responsible manner.

TO COMPLY with the spirit and letter of my business contract, and manage all of my employees with fairness and honor.

TO KEEP informed regarding public policies and other essential information, which affect my business interests and those of the building industry as a whole.

TO COMPLY with the rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies.

TO PROVIDE timely response to items covered under warranty.

TO SEEK to resolve controversies which I may become involved in through a non-litigation dispute resolution mechanism.

TO NOT ATTEMPT to injure, with malicious intent, either directly or indirectly, the professional reputation, prospects, practice, or employment of another builder.

TO SUPPORT and abide by the decisions of the Association in promoting and enforcing this Code of Ethics.

As a member, I assume the full responsibilities of this Code of Ethics freely, and am solemnly mindful that these responsibilities are a part of my obligation as a member of TABA. I pledge to support this Code of Ethics.
