

PIEDMONT REGIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

The Piedmont Regional Association of REALTORS® (PRAR) is a trade association which was chartered in October 1946. PRAR is comprised of REALTORS® and other professionals in related industries united in purpose and dedicated to providing knowledgeable and ethical real estate services to consumers and fellow REALTORS®. The Piedmont Regional Association of REALTORS® strives to provide its members with programs and services which enhance the members' ability to successfully conduct their business in a competent and ethical manner, to promote cooperation among its members, and to promote the public's right to use and transfer real property.

The Piedmont Regional Association of REALTORS® participates in lobbying efforts of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® on issues affecting homeownership and private property rights and the Real Estate industry in general.

WHAT IS AN ASSOCIATION?

An association of REALTORS® is a group of REALTORS® (agents and brokers) and interested representatives of the business community (affiliates) working cooperatively and harmoniously.

An association of REALTORS® is organized for the benefit of its members and the community.

An association of REALTORS® establishes opportunity in communications by providing a central forum for the exchange of ideas and information. It promotes a strong, conscientious and unified voice in local, state and national affairs.

The South Carolina Association of REALTORS® is the state's largest trade association. Being a member of the local and state associations also makes you a member of the National Association of REALTORS®, the country's largest trade association.
