

Future Leaders Scholarship Application

The GRA Future Leaders Scholarship will be awarded to exceptional students seeking degrees in government relations, public affairs, public service, advocacy, lobbying, public policy, public administration, or a similar field. (4) $1,500 scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence; demonstrated leadership and service to community; a desire to work in public service, government relations, advocacy, or a similar field; and demonstrated financial need. Applicants must be a GRA Future Leader member in good standing to be considered.

NOTE: Please consult IRS Publication 970 for information on the tax treatment of scholarship aid. According to this publication, scholarships are tax free if you are a candidate for a degree, the amount doesn't exceed your qualified education expenses, and you are receiving the money for qualified education expenses. GRA assumes no responsibility for misuse of funds and will ask recipients to sign a waiver acknowledging IRS Publication 970 and absolving GRA of any tax consequences for receiving scholarship funds.

Visit www.GRAssociation.org for more information.

Please fully answer all sections and send completed application, essay responses, and any letters of recommendation to aknapp@avisonstrategies.com.
