- Emcee – Camilla Yamada

Treasury Report – Mitch

- Total Assets and Liabilities of $131,321.26
- Waiting for checks to come in and go out for final 2021 number.
- New storage unit secured and in use after unfortunate break in at old location where PA system was stolen. – Lake Ballinger Heated Storage. There is plenty of room for more items.

Membership Committee- Nicole Carter

- Goals for 2022
  - New/Increased Membership
  - More participation from existing members
- Ambassador Program in the works to increase membership and participation
- Looking into purchasing WSSHE swag for event giveaways. – Contact Fawn. She has all logos and existing relationships with vendors.
- It was discussed to make membership more accessible by making changes to the website. The layout is very different from the ASHE website and may cause confusion.
  - Jackie will handle updating website.
- Great idea from Steven Wickline. When he was a part of CSHE in California it was customary for Business Partners to bring a new Professional Member to events and meetings, thereby increasing Professional attendance/membership.
- Multi-year memberships were discussed to make renewing easier. Camilla agrees this can be a smart and strategic option.

Charity Committee – Breana Langstrom

- Breanna thanks everyone for their support.
- Holiday party at Glen Acres with proceeds benefitting Camp Korey was a huge success.

- Might need a larger facility next year – Glen Acres might be outgrown.
- Raised almost $11,000 to benefit Camp Korey – OUTSTANDING!
  - Ruffled off 36 items
  - Fawn sent out a blast recognizing the effort and celebrating the win
  - Jackie will make a graphic for the website
  - Beth Schmidt suggests highlighting the wins through social media.
- Charity committee meeting soon to kick off 2022 and start planning Day of Service.

Communications Committee – Jackie

- 2022 AMI contract includes linkedIn and Facebook
- Social media is mostly managed by AMI
- Jackie will catch up with Diane on sustaining sponsors

Golf Committee – Corey

- Date set for August 15, 2022 at Plateau Club
- Contract has been sent for tournament
- Mitch will coordinate contract and deposit with Fawn
