SantaCaliGon Days Festival 2022

Presented by: xfinity

Wynonna and the Big Noise - SCG 2019

SantaCaliGon® Days Festival Celebrates Golden Anniversary

The SantaCaliGon® Days Festival, has a lot to celebrate! The festival hosted by the Independence Chamber of Commerce and sponsored by Xfinity will celebrate its 50th Anniversary in 2022.

The annual SantaCaliGon® Days Festival, held Labor Day Weekend, commemorates the origin of the Santa Fe, California, and Oregon trails in Independence during the country's great westward expansion by early pioneers. The first SantaCaliGon Days Festival was held in 1940 to celebrate the unique heritage of the City of Independence as the starting point of the three trails. A second celebration was held after World War II in 1947. The festival was not held again until 1973.

The festival, then called Three Trails Days, featured a beard and mustache contest, the Miss Independence pageant, and a pioneer costume contest. In 1974 the festival was renamed Santa-Cali-Gon Days, a name originally penned by Velma Katschkowsky in a 1940 contest to name the festival. In 50 years, the festival has evolved into one of the regions premier festivals, drawing more than 300,000 people to celebrate the end-of-summer and contributes millions of dollars in economic impact over Labor Day weekend in Independence. The region's oldest and largest FREE festival features entertainment, delicious food, handcrafted arts and crafts, a world-class carnival and two stages throughout the fun-filled weekend.

The festival's Main Stage has featured many national country music acts such as artists Clint Black, Kenny Chesney the Dixie Chicks, Dierks Bentley, Brett Eldridge as well as legendary artist Kenny Wayne Shepherd and Wynonna (Judd) and the Big Noise, who did not disappoint. Most recently, Country music's award-winning band, Sawyer Brown. The golden anniversary celebration promises to bring the same quality entertainment as in years past.

The popular Community Stage features local and regional talent throughout the daytime and local bands in the evening, where you can kick back and enjoy live music under the night sky.

All of the concerts are FREE; however, VIP wrist bands will be available for limited premium front of the stage seating and will be sold online in advance for $30/person and can be used the entire weekend at the Main Stage. Wrist bands will be available for purchase through the www.SantaCaliGon.com website.

The festival provides an excellent value for sponsors as the venue attracts large audiences and the comprehensive marketing strategy is highly effective. Logo recognition in signage, programs, maps, as well as on billboards, television, radio, and social media are included in that plan. The return on sponsorship investment is phenomenal.

Kids of all ages can experience the past, at Main Street 1849 (presented by the City of Independence) located on Main Street between Lexington & Kansas streets; guests can enjoy live entertainment, games and activities, live demonstrations and celebrate our pioneering past by interacting with true-to-life pioneer actors.

For more information about the festival visit SantaCaliGon.com, like us on Facebook or follow us on Twitter and Instagram.

Witness history, enjoy great entertainment by talented performers, check out products created by artists, entrepreneurs, and craftsmen. It's a big community party where there is truly something for everyone!

Vendor booths occupy nine square blocks in the historic downtown of Independence — the same location that blacksmiths and merchants outfitted wagon trains for their long and arduous trek west of the Missouri River in the 1800s. Today, festival goers enjoy demonstrations of blacksmithing, wood carving and other trades; a variety of handcrafted items, including jewelry, soaps, and wood crafts; as well as popular festival fare including everything from homemade root beer and kettle corn to steak sandwiches and Greek salad. Arts and crafts, as well as commercial vendors, are welcome to showcase their products and services at SCG.

SantaCaliGon Vendor Spotlight

Lynne Baker
Business to Education Connector

As we move closer to the 50th Anniversary of the SantaCaliGon Festival, I wanted to share some “behind the scenes” stories of the people who make the SantaCaliGon experience unique and special. I would like to introduce you to Rashida and Timothy Maghinay, who have brought a delicious tasting treat to Independence and the Festival. Timothy and Rashida met in Hawaii where she went to attend college. When Rashida and Timothy decided to move back to her hometown, they brought a special frozen treat with them. Taste of Aloha, True Hawaiian SHAVE Ice is a labor-intensive treat which is NOT a snow cone. In Hawaii, this delicious treat is known as SHAVE ice! In true and authentic Hawaiian style, the SHAVE ice by done by a special machine which “shaves the ice to give it that soft, melt-in-your-mouth consistency”. The remainder of the process is completed by hand. In addition, Rashida and Timothy brought with them the true flavors of the fruits of Hawaii. Yummy, Yummy!

Rashida and Timothy are a darling, young couple with five children, who work hard to make their dream of bringing “Hawaiian SHAVE ice” to everyone across and beyond the local area. Their working season is relatively short, so they have to do all they can during April until October to make their ‘business viable’. When you pass their very colorful tent, please stop by and get a truly delicious true Hawaiian SHAVE ice. I promise, you will not regret this purchase. Oh, by the way, I had “Tiger’s Blood”, as my flavor choice... and it was delicious! The Maghinay’s also have a program where they give back to the community and the schools. Stop by and visit this vibrant young couple and enjoy a delightful and authentic Taste of Aloha Hawaiian SHAVE Ice.

Thompson Farm Soups and More has held a booth for over ten years at the SCG Festival. The story of James and Terry Dennis buying this brand is quite intriguing! The original Thompson Family started this business about thirty years prior to the Dennis's purchasing the company. Mr and Mrs. Thompson first canned and later produced dry soups and other products.

Mr. Dennis owned an electrical company and was called on to do a small job for the Thompsons. As time passed, James Dennis was called to the Thompson's home more often, to do electrical jobs and became friends with the family. He was often sent home with soup mixes after calling on the family to solve their electrical issues.

Mr. Thompson was in his seventies and had started to think about retiring at some point in time. James and Terry had been in the restaurant business previously, so they decided to purchase the entire business, including the original recipes in 2011. In 2020, the Dennis family built their own manufacturing, FDA approved site. With ten children, and now grandchildren involved, the manufacturing facility is operated five days a week, producing the delicious soups and dip mixes you will find in their booth, located in the Uptown Market.

The Dennis Family live and produce their product in Wentzville, MO. The family travels to between fifty and sixty festivals a year, journeying across the Midwest. They have traveled to states as far away as Wisconsin and Michigan, as well as closer to home in Iowa and Arkansas. Mr. Dennis was very complimentary to our SCG Festival. He declared us as a "#1 Great Festival"! He shared he always enjoyed working with us because we were willing to learn and grow. He mentioned that a booth layout change, as well as changing the loading/unloading process had been quite beneficial to the vendors. He also mentioned that the SCG Committee "seems to do a good job and wants to get better" every time. In addition, Mr. Dennis stated, "They Care". Mr. Dennis, what wonderful accolades you gifted to us! We take great joy in serving our vendors, particularly those who have been with us several years. Thank you for your loyalty and support to our SCG Festival to the Dennis Family and Thompson Farm Soups and More!

The many vendors participating in the SantaCaligon Festival are all involved for a variety of reasons. For some, the financial aspect benefits their family finances, but for many vendor participants, the Non-Profits, their involvement in the SCG Festival funds the activities they want to offer their members for the coming year. The Nativity of Mary Boy Scout Troop Funnel Cake Booth would fall into this category of producing revenue for the Scouting activities their members will enjoy...such as camp registrations, High-Adventures, over-night camping supplies and general troop needs. This group, like many other non-profit organizations, will work together on this Labor Day weekend, in order to assist with the costs for the organization they support.

As with many vendors, the Nativity of Mary SCG Booth has experienced a long history with the SCG Festival. St Mary's High School was the original vendor for this booth. After St. Mary's High School closed, this booth was transferred over to the Nativity of Mary Youth group in 2013. In 2021, an Eagle Scout project resulted in the building of the Funnel Cake Trailer. Now, it was official...Nativity of Mary Boy Scout Troop 1178 became the designated vendor for this opportunity. Last year, the Nativity of Mary Boy Scout Troop 1178, was the only source of funnel cakes at the SCG Festival. Needless to say, it was a record year! According to the leader of the booth, Christa Harris, they ran out of product on Friday night. Of course, there were three more days and two more nights to serve Funnel Cakes. The group began "searching" the area for the product and they were able to locate a commercial batter to complete the weekend of funnel cake sales.

Happy Anniversary!

THE MEDALLION HUNT IS BACK!

For the 50th celebration of the festival, in collaboration with the The Examiner, we are bringing back the medallion treasure hunt! Clues pointing the treasure hunter to the location of the medallion will be published by The Examiner until all 8 medallions have been found. The medallion will be hidden at public locations in Independence. Clues will also be posted on the SantaCaliGon Days Festival Facebook page. When a medallion is found the hunter will scan the QR code on the back of the medallion to register and claim their spot to win the GRAND PRIZE WORTH $500.

One winner will be randomly selected on Friday, Sept. 2nd, at the Main Stage during the festival.
