FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

I am looking forward to my third term of serving as Board Chair of the Houston East End Chamber of Commerce for 2025-26. I have been on the Board of Directors since 2016 and have watched it serve businesses and more importantly the people who live and work here in the East End. All our events are well received and the opportunity for networking gives us all one more reason to look forward to the many exciting events coming this year. Please visit the chamber website to stay up to date on the upcoming events. The annual golf tournament is held at Gus Wortham Golf Course here in the East End and it is my favorite event each year. Since I attend most of the signature events, I am able to see just how much work it takes to run a successful event, and I am really proud of what the staff has been able to achieve.

The diverse make up of our board which includes maritime industry, banks, restaurants, small and large businesses as well as representatives of many elected officials allow us to have a dynamic team who are well equipped to help make the East End the place to live and work in Houston.

We are committed to continuing to promote and sustain business growth here in the East End and am really pleased to see so many new businesses coming to the East End and joining our chamber. The opportunities, as we move forward, are unlimited and I know the Chamber will be proactive in helping our members take advantage of the future. One of the key ingredients for our future growth is a well-educated workforce and we will be working to enhance our partnerships with our educational board members and growing our scholarship program.

The East End has a rich history and is known for its diversity, great food, small family businesses, thriving industry of Port Houston and our many refineries. It is the place to be. My employer is H-E-B which we believe stands for Here Everything is Better. I think that phrase can equally well describe the future of the East End because our Chamber will be working along with all our members to make sure it's better. If you are not yet a member, we hope you will join us because I am convinced our future is bright.

This year is especially meaningful as we celebrate the 35th anniversary of the Houston East End Chamber of Commerce—a milestone that reflects decades of advocacy, collaboration, and commitment to the businesses and people who make the East End thrive. As we mark the Chamber's 35th anniversary, I am humbled to have played a role in this organization's story for nearly half of its journey, and it is an honor to begin my 16th year serving as President.

For 35 years, the Houston East End Chamber has been a trusted advocate for local businesses, creating meaningful connections, championing opportunity, and strengthening the economic vitality of our community. I am continually inspired by the dedication of our board members, volunteers, community partners, and staff who work together to engage, educate, and unite the diverse leaders driving our region forward.

Our Chamber proudly stands at the intersection of the East End's rich history and its exciting future, with our members leading the way. As someone who grew up in the East End and continues to call it home, this community holds a special place in my heart. It is a neighborhood defined by deep roots, cultural pride, and a strong sense of belonging—a true hometown within the City of Houston. I am especially proud that our Chamber supports long-standing, legacy businesses while also welcoming new enterprises that bring fresh ideas, innovation, and momentum to our district.

To our members, thank you! Your engagement, leadership, and partnership are the foundation of our success. Your involvement strengthens not only the Chamber, but the entire East End community. We are deeply grateful for your continued support and belief in our mission.

Throughout the year, the Chamber remains focused on helping businesses grow and thrive through impactful networking, strategic advertising opportunities, professional development, and engaging social events. We also collaborate closely with fellow Chambers and organizations throughout the East End to expand opportunities for connection and collective impact. Your ideas and feedback are always welcome as we continue to evolve and enhance how we serve you.

As we look ahead, I am excited to celebrate this milestone year through our Signature Programs while continuing to advance our education and workforce development initiatives. The East End continues to experience dynamic growth, new investment, and emerging opportunities—and we invite you to be part of the movement shaping its future. If you are not yet a member, I encourage you to make this the year you join us. For our current members, I invite you to deepen your involvement and help us create meaningful, lasting change.

It is truly an honor to serve as President and to advance the mission of the Houston East End Chamber of Commerce: Connecting businesses and promoting economic expansion and investment in the East End. Together, we are building on 35 years of impact while laying the foundation for a strong, vibrant, and resilient future.

Please feel free to reach out anytime at frances@eecoc.org. I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events and continuing this important work together.

Sincerely,

A DEVELOPING COMMUNITY BY KATHERINE MENZER

Houston's East End continues to elevate and evolve as one of the city's most eclectic and vibrant destinations. One minute you're standing in front of a century old building with original brick and steel, and the next you see new construction, new businesses, and fresh ideas taking shape. It's a part of Houston where history is not forgotten, but lived in, built on, and celebrated.

A perfect example is The Hall at Ironworks, a new event venue designed by Andrew Kaldis of Kaldis Development. Located inside the historic Cameron Iron Works complex, it's the kind of space where you can feel the history the moment you walk in. The architecture is bold, the character is one of a kind, and the layout can transform for just about anything, including weddings, galas, markets, and community gatherings. It offers a rare mix of vintage charm and modern flexibility that makes an event feel both memorable and timeless.

THE HALL AT IRONWORKS

Just down the road in East River, the Houston Maritime Center and Museum shares another side of the East End's story, one tied closely to the water. Houston's growth has long been driven by shipping, trade, and the Port. The Houston Maritime Center and Museum brings that legacy to life through ship models, artifacts, and historical documents, from early exploration to today's port operations. It is an engaging stop for history lovers, families, and anyone curious about the forces that have fueled Houston's growth.

EAST RIVER

That same sense of momentum, where past meets the future, is showing up in a big way with the new development at East River. Located at Jensen and Clinton about a mile from downtown, this 150-acre mixed use development is shaping up to be one of Houston's largest destinations of its kind. With office, retail, residential, and community spaces, plus more than a mile of Buffalo Bayou frontage, it is designed to bring together businesses, residents, and creatives in one connected place. East River is also the new home to Port Houston's new corporate office, keeping the area's long-standing ties to industry and commerce front and center. As it continues to grow, East River is welcoming new businesses like La Calle Tacos & Cantina, Laffa Mediterranean Bakery, and more, while also hosting community events throughout the year.

HARRIS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SAFETY & COMMUNITY CENTER

Alongside private development, public investment is also helping reshape the East End. Harris County is making a major investment in the East End with the Harris County Sheriff's Office Safety & Community Center, now under construction at 5910 Navigation Boulevard. The 11-acre project will bring several Sheriff's Office operations together in one modern, community focused hub, including investigative facilities, property and evidence services, and a dedicated community center with public space. What makes it especially meaningful is the role community input has played in shaping the center, with a clear goal of supporting public safety while remaining accessible, welcoming, and connected to the neighborhood.

Follow the Houston East End Chamber on social media to keep up to date on East End happenings, new developments and why the East End is the place to be.

EAST END DISTRICT

The East End District helps commercial property owners within its 16-square-mile area by controlling litter and dumpsites, removing graffiti, and providing 24/7 security patrols.

The District leads community projects by using local funds along with public grants and private partnerships. Since Fall 2018, 98% of their project costs have been covered by these partnerships, with the District paying the remainder. For every $1 of local funds spent, the District has raised and invested $44 from these partnerships. This money supports projects that improve safe access to transit, enhance public green spaces, create pocket parks, and build better-connected hike and bike trails.

With plenty of available land, existing warehouses and former manufacturing spaces ripe for mixed-use developments, as well as opportunities for pedestrianized placemaking and making our roadways safe for those traveling without the use of a car or truck, the East End is an incubator for new businesses to thrive, and a significant place for existing businesses to grow.

ROOTED HERE, GROWING HERE

EAST END MEMBER SPOTLIGHTS BY KATHERINE MENZER

Houston's East End moves forward because its people move together. Generations of neighbors, business owners, and community partners have built a place defined by hard work, resilience, and opportunity. As the Houston East End Chamber marks 35 years of service, we celebrate how far we've come and look forward to the continued growth and opportunity ahead.

That same spirit is reflected at Taqueria Monchy's, a woman-owned neighborhood favorite with deep roots in the East End. Led by Lucinea Canyfer Vazquez, the family-owned taqueria builds on the legacy her family created and continues to welcome generations of customers. It represents the culture and resilience that define the East End and the small businesses that keep it moving forward.

LUCINEA CANYFER VAZQUEZ
CATERING ON THE
SAM HOUSTON BOAT

That momentum was recently reflected in the opening of Taqueria Monchy's second location inside Omnibus Express, made possible by becoming a certified vendor of Port Houston, Harris County, and METRO Houston. Their new location offers more opportunities for travelers in the area to stop by and support a true East End favorite. It's a meaningful reminder that when a community supports its local businesses, expansion can happen without losing authenticity, and success can stay connected to the neighborhood that made it possible.

That same spirit of support shows up in the everyday moments that help local organizations operate more smoothly. When Paula Mendoza, our Foundation Board Chair, reached out for an internet provider referral, the Chamber connected Possible Missions with fellow member Comcast Business. Comcast Business guided their team through the fiber installation process from start to finish, improving internet and phone reliability, speed, and overall day-to-day workflow.

One standout moment came during a scheduled meeting with Comcast Business' area representative. What was expected to be a one-on-one conversation became a team effort, with staff from multiple departments joining to provide a thoughtful plan tailored to Possible Missions' needs. As Possible Missions celebrates its 25th anniversary, we congratulate them and recognize the impact of choosing to do business with Chamber members, a decision that strengthens the entire East End network.

POSSIBLE MISSIONS

Milestones like these matter because they speak to longevity, trust, and a commitment to doing things the right way — values that also define Houston Dynamic Service as they celebrate their 50th anniversary. With that legacy comes growth, and with growth comes important questions about how to scale, stay efficient, and plan for what's next.

HOUSTON DYNAMIC SERVICE

For the team at Houston Dynamic Service, the answer has been to thoughtfully reimagine operations in a way that meets future demand while staying true to the quality and reliability they're known for.

To support this next chapter, the Chamber helped connect Clayton and Luke Lau with fellow member Shane Wilson of RDLR Architecture to help design a new industrial facility that will expand storage and strengthen day-to-day operations. Spanning multiple lots and nearly half a block, the project is being built with immediate functionality and long-term growth in mind. From the beginning, the process has been highly collaborative, guided by clear operational priorities and consistent, open communication that keeps both teams aligned on outcomes. The result is a partnership focused on practical solutions and a facility that positions Houston Dynamic Service for an even stronger, future-ready operation.

Looking ahead also means investing in the places that shape a community, and Houston's most meaningful public spaces are created through intention and partnership. That approach is reflected in the long-standing relationship between Buffalo Bayou Partnership (BBP) and Tellepsen, two organizations working together to preserve and enhance the East End through projects that honor local history while preparing for what's next.

Together, they treat Buffalo Bayou as one of Houston's most important natural assets, where identity, heritage, and future growth intersect. BBP keeps the focus on what the community needs most, and Tellepsen ensures the work is delivered with the quality and care it deserves. Their work has helped create and revitalize Japhet Creek Park, Warehouse at Turkey Bend, Tony Marron Park, and Garver Park through a hands-on partnership focused on real-time problem solving and long-term community value. As BBP advances its 10-year vision, this collaboration continues to strengthen the East End through public spaces built to serve generations.

35 YEARS AND GROWING FORWARD

HONORING OUR ROOTS, BUILDING WHAT'S NEXT

In Houston's East End, history and progress grow side by side. As the neighborhood continues to evolve, the most meaningful development builds on strong foundations, celebrates local character, and creates new space for opportunity. It's a forward-looking approach that brings more activity, more connection, and more long-term impact while staying true to what makes the East End so special.

That sense of legacy is especially meaningful this year as Milby High School (1601 Broadway St, Houston, TX 77012) celebrates its 100th anniversary. For generations, Milby has been a source of pride, a community gathering point, and a place where stories, traditions, and futures begin. GO BUFFALOES!

MILBY HIGH SCHOOL
THEN

NOW

The Hall at Ironworks (711 Milby St, Suite 200, Houston, TX 77023) reflects that same spirit. Once the industrial site of Cameron Ironworks, the space has been thoughtfully transformed into a lively event hall that welcomes people in and brings the community together. Its industrial roots remain part of the experience, highlighting how places with deep history can take on a new purpose while continuing to bring people together.

THE HALL AT IRONWORKS

Port Houston is coming back to its roots in the East End with new administrative offices at the East River development (2960 Riverby Road, Houston, TX 77020). The new six-story workplace strengthens the area's long-standing connection to the Ship Channel and regional commerce while bringing new energy and investment to the neighborhood. We're excited to see Port Houston begins this next chapter in East River.

PORT OF HOUSTON NEW OFFICE

Together, these stories share a common theme: progress with purpose. They highlight what makes the East End stand out, the vision behind the work and the people who make it happen. For 35 years, the Houston East End Chamber has helped support that progress by connecting partners, championing local businesses, and creating opportunities rooted in collaboration and community pride.

As we celebrate 35 years, we do so with gratitude for the leaders, volunteers, staff, and members who have helped shape this work. Thank you to everyone who continues investing in the East End through your businesses, your service, and your partnerships. The future is bright, and together we will keep strengthening connections, supporting local businesses, and building what's next for the community we're proud to call home.

Thank You TO OUR LEGACY MEMBERS
