

Louisiana State Penitentiary at Angola CLE Tour

FRIDAY
November 6, 2026
Bus Departure: 8:45 AM
Bus Return 2:00 PM

544 Main Street, Baton Rouge, LA → 17544 Tunica Trace, Angola, LA

This unique CLE will explore professionalism, re-entry and the role lawyers and judges play in serving clients and the public good. Professor Angela A. Allen-Bell will share professionalism lessons drawn from letters written by justice-impacted individuals, offering perspectives on improving the legal system and the quality of services provided by lawyers and judges. Judge Fred Crifasi, Presiding Judge of the 19th JDC's Re-Entry Court, will provide insight into the re-entry process, including the challenges faced by individuals returning to the community after incarceration and the role courts and legal professionals can play in supporting successful re-entry. The CLEs will accompany a tour of Louisiana State Penitentiary at Angola, providing participants with an opportunity to gain firsthand perspective on incarceration and the justice system. Lunch from the Big House Cafe included.
