BROKER AND AGENT IDX SOLUTIONS

2.0 SMART FRAME

For Agents or Brokers seeking a simple plug-n-play listing search and display, our 2.0 Smart Frame solution delivers simplicity and affordability without sacrificing any bells and whistles. You get real-time listing data with unlimited searches, high-rez photos and a beautiful mobile experience.

INSTANT IDX WEBSITE

Looking for the whole enchilada and you want it right now? We have that too. AgentSquared Instant IDX Websites is a fully hosted website solution built with an incredible search and display, integrated with your Flexmls CRM so you never have to enter contacts twice. Build your very own website from start to finish instantly with a simple online wizard.

WORDPRESS PLUGIN

Designed specifically for Wordpress users, our Wordpress Plugin is chock full of search-engine optimized content, cool widgets and of course, a responsive design that entices clients and prospects to contact you directly. In no time at all, you can have a cool website that engages customers and turns them into leads.

DEVPRO API

If you are an Agent or Broker who has hired a Developer to build you a fully custom, state of the art lead capture machine, we provide the Developer's Dream in our DevPro API - maximum development flexibility, that enables your Developer to build a truly incredible, one of a kind, online showcase site just for you. If you are thinking custom, API is the way to go.
