

AHRD Conference Policy
Approved 2/13/13

International Research Conference in the Americas

The Executive committee, or designated others, is responsible for the annual International Research Conference in the Americas and will provide oversight and serve as an adviser to the host or program committee of the conference.

The Executive committee, or designated others, is responsible for choosing and negotiating the venue of the annual International Research Conference in the Americas with approval of the board..

The Board of Directors will determine and approve the registration fees for the International Research Conference in the Americas each year.

Other conferences

The Executive committee, or designated others, is responsible for the venue and administration for other conferences. The European conference is managed by the University Forum for HRD. The Asian conference coordinator is appointed by the President with the approval of the board.