

Travis Berthiaume | Dairy Queen

Travis is a local business owner in the Cowichan Valley. He owns the Duncan Dairy Queen, some commercial real estate in Duncan, and overseas management of 40-50 employees. He is the DQ brand ambassador in BC for the Children's Miracle Network and, through the Duncan Dairy Queen, has been BC's top contributor to the CMN for 3 years running. He has significant experience in the finance and insurance industries and has been self-employed since he was 21 years old. Travis is active in efforts to revitalize primarily the highway corridor, but also other areas around the valley. He is passionate about helping others and has been a mentor to individuals from all walks of life.
