

MAKE AN IMPACT THROUGH

CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

ABOUT THE INDUSTRIAL NETWORK GROUP (ING)

The Industrial Network Group (ING) is an exclusive, membership-based organization comprised of experienced industrial sales professionals. With chapters established across the United States, ING is continually expanding into strategic markets to grow its national network and impact.

Each ING chapter is driven by the mission to cultivate a dynamic salesforce on behalf of its members. The goal is for every member to serve as a trusted resource to their clients by confidently referring the products and services offered by fellow members within the group.

By joining the Industrial Network Group, members gain access to a strong network of industrial professionals, stay informed about local projects and companies, and enhance both their sales skills and business growth.
