2022 ANNUAL MEETING

June 10-12, 2022

Palm Beach, Florida

ABOUT THE FSA

The Florida Society of Anesthesiologists is an educational, research and scientific association of physicians organized to elevate and to maintain the standards of the medical practice of anesthesiology and to improve the care of their patients. Since its founding in 1948, the Society's achievements have made it an important voice in Florida medicine and the foremost advocate for all patients who require anesthesia or relief from pain. For more information about the society, please visit www.fsahq.org.

On behalf of the FSA leadership, we welcome you once again to our in-person Florida Society of Anesthesiologists 2022 Annual Meeting.

Our program committee co-chairs, Dr. Luis I. Rodriguez, and Dr. Steve Porter, have put together an outstanding meeting this year. We will offer a variety of sessions, workshops and discussions that reflect this year's meeting theme - "Together Again."

This year's program will touch on all areas of Anesthesiology and address both personal and professional issues. ASA President Dr. Randy Clark will present our Converse Lecture, and Congressman and Anesthesiologist Andy Harris will give us an update on National Legislative matters anesthesiologists face. Dr. Moeed Azam, will give us an FSA legislative update.

Attendees will have the opportunity to hear an interesting analysis of surgical growth in the State of Florida and its implications for OR Management. We will continue to expand on the implementation of new technologies in Anesthesia, including a review of brain monitoring devices.

After the stress of the pandemic, our program committee has added wellness topics including nutrition, the culture of compassion, burnout syndrome, and building up our mental fitness to achieve professional development, fulfillment and peace of mind.

As regulations change, CMS will eliminate the inpatient only list, as a consequence, more procedures are shifting from Hospitals to Ambulatory settings, our regional anesthesia faculty will discuss new peripheral blocks used for hip surgery, and an interesting talk about awake spine surgery under regional anesthesia.

New surgical advances, have improved cardiac surgery, and our cardiac and critical care faculty group will speak about minimally invasive cardiac surgery, and will be demystifying ECMO.

Our Pediatric faculty will review pediatric problems for the general anesthesiologist. We will address chronic pain and do a deep dive on headache, the safe use of opioids in chronic pain, psychiatric and psychological comorbidities associated with chronic pain, and the ever-popular issue, opioid induced constipation. Our academic faculty will discuss the use of the O.R. as a classroom, and how to build a faculty development program in academic medicine. Finally we will also learn about updates on malignant hyperthermia.

Please enjoy interacting with your colleagues, which to us is the greatest value to our members. Our annual meeting has always been a family oriented meeting, and for the past 18 years, we have met at one of the most beautiful resorts in Florida. Immerse yourself in all the great offerings our team has thoughtfully put together for you. Our members and meeting attendees are our Society's lifeblood – you're the reason we do what we do. And finally, Don't miss the last activity, our Anesthesiology Jeopardy competition between Florida residency programs.

Thank you for your attendance, for your membership, for your loyalty and for your support. Don't forget to visit the industry representatives that support our society and help us put this meeting together with their financial largesse.

I wish you all a fulfilling, insightful and fun annual meeting. Please contribute to the FSA PAC.

MEMBERSHIP IN THE FSA

The Florida Society of Anesthesiologists has a membership of over 2100 members, and includes not only practicing anesthesiologists, but also residents, research scientists, anesthesiology assistants, nurse anesthetists, and students. The benefits of membership to the FSA are many, and include:

- A supportive environment for practitioners and students of anesthesiology to present their research and to network with others in the profession;
- Participation in the committees and leadership roles that guide the direction of anesthesiology in Florida;
- Representation – through the FSA Political Action Committee – along with relevant, up-to-the-minute information about current state and federal legislative issues affecting anesthesiology;
- Promoting interactions and facilitating mentorships between students, trainees and senior anesthesiologists;

As a state component of the American Society of Anesthesiologists, FSA members must also belong to the ASA. The FSA uses the ASA membership application for state membership. There are several available categories for membership, and you can find your appropriate category on the FSA website at www.fsahq.org/join-fsa.

FSAPAC is the political component of the Florida Society of Anesthesiologists. Federal law as well as Florida state law prohibits associations such as FSA from involving themselves in the political process. Only PACs can participate, and FSAPAC strives to play a key role in shaping the policies important to Florida anesthesiologists. Compensation, regulatory issues, the role of non-physician providers in the practice of anesthesiology – these and other vital issues are the focus of FSAPAC, and the committee provides direct contributions to incumbents, challengers and open-seat candidates for office who have proven that they are willing to listen to FSA's message and share the vision of providing the highest quality anesthesiology care.

To learn more about how to donate to this most worthwhile endeavor, visit the FSA website at www.fsahq.org/donate-fsapac.

Douglas Jaffe, DO; Jean-Pierre (JP) Ouanes, DO; Rose Tang, MD; Yury Zasimovich, MD Activity description: Optimization of pain control while minimizing side-effects from medications is one of the core elements of enhanced recovery. Infiltration of local anesthetic into tissue planes such as erector spinae plane (ESP), rectus sheath, and chest wall muscle planes (PECS 1, 2 and serratus) are becoming increasingly popular and have been shown to provide enhanced analgesia for abdominal and breast procedures. Similarly, same-day joint replacement is becoming a new standard for knee and hip replacement. Targeted ultrasound-guided infiltration of the knee and hip via pericapsular nerve group (PENG) block, genicular nerve infiltration, and posterior capsule infiltration (iPACK) are novel motor-sparing techniques that provides high-quality analgesia with accelerated mobility and functional recovery. At this hands-on workshop, participants will learn the indications, sonoanatomy and techniques for performing these ultrasound-guided infiltration procedures. This 2-hour session will incorporate didactic lectures, hands-on scanning of live models and technique practice with high-fidelity anatomical gel phantom models. At the conclusion of this session, the participants will be able to: » Discuss the rational use of targeted ultrasound guided knee and hip blocks for orthopedic patients with a focus on same-day discharge. » Describe the indications, strengths and limitations for various fascial plane blocks of the chest wall and abdomen. » Design a comprehensive, balanced pain management plan that minimizes opioid-related adverse effects and facilitates rapid recovery from surgery and anesthesia. CME for the workshop will be provided by a third-party provider.
