

Northeastern Oregon celebrates some of the richest arts and cultural communities in the state. The sweeping and diverse landscapes of Eastern Oregon and the majestic peaks of the Wallowas and the Elkhorns inspire artists and craftsmen from every corner of the world to capture, create, and preserve its history and wonder.

Each of these communities offer a unique experience of the Northeast Oregon Country, from music, theater, and art galleries to annual festivals and cultural celebrations.

We invite you to dive into the best arts and cultural events that Northeast Oregon has to offer.

Once you've seen it for yourself, you'll understand why locals call this beautiful place their home.

Baker County

Visitors to Baker County will find a burgeoning arts and cultural scene. Each year, newcomers celebrate the arts and mingle with local artists at a multitude of galleries showcasing some of the finest works of local and regional artists.

Popular annual arts and cultural festivals include the monthly First Friday Art Walk, the Baker Artists Studio Tour, numerous artisan craft fairs, and of course the one-of-a-kind Great Salt Lick Art Auction.

Baker County also hosts numerous music festivals, performances, and live theater productions by the Eastern Oregon Regional Theatre and the Missoula Children's Theater. For those visitors wanting to hone their own artistic skills, visitors can attend regularly scheduled classes at the Crossroads Carnegie Art Center in historic downtown Baker City.

For more information about the arts in Baker County visit Crossroads Carnegie Art Center at www.crossroads-arts.org. Or stop by the Baker County Chamber of Commerce for all types of visitor information. 490 Campbell Street; www.basecampbaker.com.
