

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR CEO

"Some of the work done by the Chamber over the last 125 years is not only surprising to most, but played a significant role in the progress that has made the city what it is today" (quoted from Celebrating 125 years of the Greater Eureka Chamber of Commerce)

We are now 130 years strong!

While many things change, some remain the same.

We at the Chamber understand the importance of having a robust group of business people that come together to share ideas and work to create an environment for growth and improvement for our economic future. For this, I thank our board, committee chairs and staff.

I respect the position I hold and I am proud of the direction the Chamber has taken in the last few years as a Catalyst for business growth, Convener of business leaders and influencers and a Champion for a stronger community.

We have focused on you, our members and have moved with the changing needs of our community.

Just last week we held our inaugural State of The Economy webinar designed to assist our local business community in formulating tactics and strategies to move forward in 2021. This was very well attended. Our speakers were carefully chosen and included Randy Weaver, a labor market consultant with California Employment Development Department, Humboldt County's Economic Development Director Scott Adair, City Manager Miles Slattery and Eureka Finance Director Lane Millar. We heard the of the status of the well-being of our local economy, an overview of upcoming opportunities to grow the local labor market, current county programs and initiatives, and current marketing strategies for the city.

During the pandemic we brought you relevant time-sensitive speakers each month at our Virtual Mixers. We have produced important information to you online and in print to ensure not only your survival but success.

As we emerge from a year like no other, we will continue our support for your businesses and we will advocate on your behalf and create programs that are needed like an E-Commerce and online training program designed to elevate your exposure and bottom line.

What can you do? You can engage with the Chamber, become a member, check out our website, read our newsletters, join a committee, attend an event, follow us on social media and reach out to us with suggestions, recommendations and feedback. Your business will benefit, I promise!

State of the Economy Webinar

In an effort to aid our business community on how to best move forward in 2021, The Eureka Chamber brought together noteworthy leaders from the state, county, and city for its inaugural State of the Economy event, Friday, April 9, 2021.

Randall Weaver, a labor market consultant with the California Employment Development Department discussed recent labor market trends, occupation and skills demand, and upcoming opportunities to grow the local labor market in areas such as aquaculture, cannabis, and green infrastructure. Humboldt County's Director of Economic Development, Scott Adair, shared current and upcoming programs and initiatives related to economic development and supporting small businesses. Eureka City Manager, Miles Slattery, and Eureka Finance Director, Lane Millar, provided information related to current marketing efforts, trends in local tax revenues, housing initiatives, beautification projects, and more.

We are pleased to say this event was well-attended, successful, and free thanks to our sponsors: The County of Humboldt and The Eureka Chamber's Diamond Members - Advanced Security Systems, Bear River Casino Resort, and Chevron.
