

June 2023 Eureka Chamber of Commerce Newsletter

Kristen Collins of K.Co Interiors offered an engaging and content-dense class on Organizational Systems.

Next Level: Up Your Game!

Back in February, we launched a new opportunity for Chamber members and the community at large to access a wide variety of professional development opportunities.

Next Level now offers 4-6 unique learning opportunities each month. In the coming weeks you and your colleagues can learn about:

- Public Speaking for Professionals
- Onboarding for Retention
- How to Value and Price Your Products and Services
- Exit Strategies
- Financial Reports
- Advertising Vs. Branding
- Starting Your Own Podcast or YouTube Channel

Register for any of these classes today, and keep an eye on EurekaChamber.com/Events for new additions to our offerings.

We are also looking for instructors with expertise in areas germane to the business community. Do you have expertise you would like to offer? If so, please contact Heather Bitner at heather@eurekachamber.com.

We are here to help you and your colleagues rise to the Next Level!

May you be well.
