6 MUST VISIT SITES

Adventure awaits you...

1

EIFFEL TOWER PARK

12 NORTH EXPRESS STREET | 479-963-2244

There is a lot to see and do at Paris' iconic Eiffel Tower Park. The park was established in 2014 on the west side of the town square and should be at the top of your must-see list! Bonjour!

The Eiffel Tower was a gift to the city standing 25-feet tall with a two-tier water fountain. It is painted with the same three colors of paint as the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France.

A Love Lock Fence was added in 2017. Don't miss a chance to lock your love in Paris at Arkansas' Eiffel Tower.

A Farmer's Market is open seasonally every Tuesday and Saturday morning from 8 a.m. to noon during growing season. Local farmers and crafters offer great produce, eggs, meats, cheeses, baked goods, and even local live music can be heard from the Eiffel Park stage.

2

LOGAN COUNTY "OLD JAIL" MUSEUM

202 NORTH VINE STREET | 479-963-3936
OPEN WEDNESDAY - SATURDAY 12-5 P.M.

The site of the last legal hanging took place in Paris, Arkansas. Visit the museum to learn about the living history of Logan County. In October each year, we host the Haunted History Tours that celebrate historical figures. Museum tours are available by calling in advance.

3

COAL MINER'S MEMORIAL/MUSEUM

804 SOUTH ELM STREET 479-963-6463
OPEN FRIDAY-SUNDAY 9:30 A.M. TO 4:30 P.M.
*Tours by appointment

Educational, fun and rich in history. In the 1800's coal was discovered in Logan County and the rest is history. With photos and tributes to local coal miners, it is a fun history lesson for all ages. Be sure to stop by the functioning blacksmith shop and see how it all worked.

4

WINE MUSEUM AT COWIE WINERY

101 NORTH CARBON CITY RD | 479-963-3990
WWW.COWIEWINECELLARS.COM

Arkansas wine country is just around the corner. There are 7 working wineries in the state that are open to the public. Cowie Winery and Arkansas Historic Wine Museum is located in Carbon City just a few miles west of Paris. You won't want to miss seeing their bell collection, including the single largest bell in Arkansas, while learning about the history of wine making.

5

SUBIACO ABBEY

405 N SUBIACO AVE, SUBIACO | 479-964-1001
WWW.SUBI.ORG

A must see while in Paris. Don't miss a chance to buy Country Monks Brewing Beer each Saturday, as this is one of only 4 monasteries that brew their own lager. Their famous hot sauce, peanut brittle, jams and jellies all make great souvenirs and gifts. The monks of Subiaco Abbey are Benedictines and trace their monastic history back to the 5th century Italy. The Subiaco Abbey has a great retreat facility, church, inner court, east park, living quarters for the monks and a college prep boarding/day school for boys. The history of the building and landscape is something you will never forget.

6

MOUNT MAGAZINE STATE PARK

16878 HWY AR-309 | 877-MMLODGE
WWW.MOUNTMAGAZINESTATEPARK.COM

The lodge offers many great experiences for the young and the young at heart. From camping to cabins you will enjoy all the mountain has to offer. Popular for the four seasons and famous for the fall foliage, you will enjoy a visit all year around. Best known for the Signal Hill Trail, just a short hike, that will get you to the highest point in the state of Arkansas, Mt Magazine has something for everyone!
