Corporate America Family's Pat Tollefson Leadership Recognized

Del Mar, CA (October 26, 2023) – At NACUC's 47th Annual Chairs' Roundtable Forum in San Francisco, Pat Tollefson was recognized as the 2023 Gene Ball Award. Tollefson became a credit union member after starting her first job and getting her first car loan. In 1978, she and her husband moved to South Dakota where she began working for the City of Aberdeen, one of the SEGs of Aberdeen Federal Credit Union. She served on Aberdeen's Board of Directors for more than 20 years, 13 of those years as Board Chair. Tollefson was recently elected to the Board of Corporate America Family Credit Union based in Elgin, Illinois. She has been attending NACUC Roundtable Forums for the last decade and served on NACUC's Board from 2019 to 2022. NACUC Board Chair Dr. Luis Ramos remarked, "Pat generously shares her wisdom and experience with her peers, and we are honored to recognize her many contributions to this organization."
