What has the Greater Orlando Builders Association Done for MEMBERS lately?

REPRESENTATION

Industry Issues

- GOBA & FHBA successfully advocated the legislature for a statewide preemption to the Rights of Nature (RON) Charter Amendment passed in Orange County, which granted all water bodies in Orange County the right to sue to stop building & development. The preemption was recently upheld by the court which dismissed attempts by RON advocates to overturn the preemption.
- Orange County embarked on a comprehensive review of their current tree related ordinances and policies, with an eye towards making potentially significant revisions. As a result of input and feedback provided by GOBA members, the proposed changes are far less onerous and more reasonable than initially contemplated. It appears to work both for the county and the development community.
- Orange County reached out to GOBA to host a workshop at our Association with County Staff, Builders, Affordable Housing Advocates, and other stakeholders to discuss ways for the county to help with the Housing Crisis in Central Florida. During the meeting, there were discussions about incentives, changes in processes and other things the county could do to help with getting housing on-line faster. In October of 2022, three fees were lowered and eight fees received a 25% temporary reduction. This is expected to save builders $10M per year for the next three years.
- Osceola County proposed new residential architectural and design standards, which would add significant cost to new homes & make certain product types no longer permitted. County staff was receptive to many of GOBA member proposed changes & incorporated them into the latest draft. Final Vote by BCC expected in February of 2023.
- City of St. Cloud approached GOBA to review proposed design standards, GOBA was able to work to scale down the requirements originally proposed.

- Seminole County is currently conducting an extensive rewrite of their land development code (LDC), which has not been significantly updated since the 90's. GOBA has reviewed drafts of the proposed LDC changes, & submitted member comments/concerns to county staff, many of which have been incorporated into subsequent drafts. GOBA members have had the opportunity to weigh in on voice their concerns throughout the process. A final workshop is scheduled for January of 2023 with public hearings scheduled for later in 2023.
- GOBA held a series of special meetings to discuss and help our local jurisdictions to come together & work on getting a workable solution to the implementation of the new HVAC Seer2 standards set by the federal government to begin in January 2023.

Forum with Building Officials

GOBA provides a forum where members meet directly with Area Building Officials on matters such as plans review, permitting, and the inspection process.

Education

- GOBA Builder members get free access for their Project Superintendents to our annual National Award winning Project Superintendent Training program. It is a Public-Private partnership between GOBA and Orange County Building Safety Department that offers annual superintendent training on how to pass each individual inspection in the homebuilding process. Attendees with professional Licenses receive 1 CEU per class.
- GOBA provides opportunities for our member to have special Electronic Plans submittal classes taught by the various building departments on their Electronic Plans Submittal Platforms.
- GOBA members have access to various annual educational panels and discussions such as : Economic Updates, Legal Seminars, Construction Defects and Warranty programs.

Legislation & Elections

Lobbies Legislators

- GOBA leaders routinely travel to Washington D.C. & Tallahassee to meet privately with Central Florida Legislators to advocate for our industry on issues such as: water policy, impact fees, tax policy, & Florida's Building Code.
- GOBA annually attends our FHBA Legislative Week in Tallahassee to advocate for important legislation impacting our industry.

GOBA PAC CANDIDATE INTERVIEWS

GOBA PAC members meet and interview most local candidates to help elect construction & development friendly candidates into office. In 2022, GOBA PAC endorsed/financially supported and helped to elect 18 Central Florida elected officials.

Municipal Commission and County Work Groups

GOBA members serve on important county & regional work groups, commissions, advisory committees and land use boards, including Orange County Affordable Housing Taskforce, Orange County's Streamlining Permitting and Environmental Committees, City of Orlando's Development Stakeholders Group, Orange County Planning & Zoning Commission, Osceola County Affordable Housing Board & the Orange County Impact Fee Advisory Committee.

Impact Fees

GOBA successfully advocated for Osceola County to delay increasing Mobility Fees. GOBA lobbied to have Orange County Public School impact fees be phased in and partially delayed, saving developers and homeowners millions of dollars. GOBA members regularly participate on impact fee review and advisory board.

See What Our Members Are Saying!

Andy Stilfield, M/I Homes-Builder Member

"GOBA's ability to gather and communicate the change in procedures from the area building departments as well as lobbying for construction and sales of homes to remain an essential business was invaluable. GOBA's proactive approach lends itself to continue to be a leader in the area housing industry. "

Rick Caccavello, Central Kitchen and Bath- Associate Member

"GOBA is an amazing association with amazing and caring members and staff. We look at GOBA as our partner. They help us stay informed, make connections, and represent our industry overall, not just the builders, but all of us. I can't begin to express how important that has been to our business."

Thad Lynch, JNS Homes- Builder Member

"GOBA is on the front of all building related topics, issues, and initiatives representing the greater good of the industry. GOBA is the primary source for information, resources, training, collaboration, and support for building professionals. A membership with GOBA provides phenomenal value and becomes a necessity for your business."

Vivien Monaco, Watson Sloane- Associate Member

"My GOBA membership is so important to my clients and me. GOBA (and FHBA and NAHB) work tirelessly to help builders in so many ways. The local Government Affairs staff and member volunteers coordinate with our tri-county local governments to ensure that builders' issues and concerns are heard, and GA has positively influenced proposed ordinances to save builders millions of dollars."
