CHAMBER ANNOUNCES NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH CANAJOHARIE SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Chamber is thrilled to announce a new partnership with the Canajoharie Central School District's Educator Residency Program. This program is a unique, innovative, and transformative professional learning opportunity in which educators are placed on special assignment for the school year to be immersed in professional learning.

Starting this fall, accepted teachers will engage in internships with local businesses to gain a better understanding of the workplace and implement their experiences back in their classrooms and with their students. Read more about this exciting program and how you can get involved on page 9.

RIBBON-CUTTING EVENT AT LORENZO'S SOUTHSIDE

The Chamber helped celebrate Lorenzo Southside's new outdoor bar and seating with a ribbon-cutting event on July 13. Gaetano Lanzi (with scissors) told the group that they decided to build the outside bar to make available more seating and bar space after the inside bar at the restaurant became so popular. William Coffey Woodworking & Studio of Northville designed, created, and installed the bar, with a hydraulic lift. An identical hydraulic system is already in place at the Channel Bar at Lakeside. Lorenzo's originally opened on April 1, 2020 right at the heart of the pandemic. Gaetano said that Amsterdam and the Fulton and Montgomery Counties communities have been so supportive of Lorenzo's since they opened at the heart of the pandemic in April of 2020. He thanked the communities in Fulton and Montgomery Counties for their continued support!

Dear Members,

For those of you who don't know me, my name is Anne Boles, and I am proud to introduce myself as the newest Executive Director of the Fulton Montgomery Regional Chamber of Commerce. I am honored to take this position, with the goals of revitalizing the Chamber's mission and building upon the successes my many talented predecessors have achieved in our region for more than 100 years.

Seventeen years ago, at the start of my career, it was programs offered by the Chamber, such as the Leadership Academy and other skill-building seminars, where I was taught and mentored by our own regional business representatives. They showed me how to become a next-generation leader, and how to make the best of my career at my then-employer, Community Health Center based in Johnstown.

CHC's membership in the Chamber and interest in serving the broader community led me to induction into the Amsterdam Rotary Club, where I served as President.

I believe that I will offer new energy and enthusiasm for the work of the Chamber, because being in this community, with my family and colleagues, is what I love most. I am humbled and grateful to the Chamber Board of Directors for their willingness to support me in the vision I have for this organization and our shared communities.

I'd like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for YOUR membership in the Fulton Montgomery Regional Chamber of Commerce. Because of your commitment and dedication to your businesses and organizations, we have so much potential for ways to collaborate with you, celebrate your achievements and support the work you do each day. You are the driving force of the economy in our area, and we are here to assist in making that force strong and vibrant.

Despite my own journey in the business world, I am still excited to learn from you, and share ideas. Together, we can boost the positive energy we already have in the region, and the Chamber is here to help your business or organization expand its networks, benefit from strong advocacy on your behalf, and also grow to meet your highest potential. Our main goal is to continually build the value of your membership in the Chamber of Commerce.

Please know that we are committed to providing resources, awareness, advocacy, and creativity, all to assist you.

Through my tenure as the Director of Tourism Development here at the Chamber, I was honored to meet with and cultivate relationships and partnerships with the range of small solo-owner businesses all the way up to large companies and county- and state-level government agencies. I believe these partnerships will continue to grow, and by utilizing these connections, we can gain more

The Fulton Montgomery Chamber has always aligned itself with the Business Council of New York State as we continue to advocate for our businesses...and this year is no exception. The Business Council is New York's leading business organization, representing nearly 3,000 private sector employers and business organizations across the state, and in all major sectors of the New York economy.

In 2023, as the state continues its long economic recovery from the pandemic and national recession, The Business Council's focus is on key initiatives that they believe will promote continued private sector investment, employment, and job growth in New York State. The Chamber uses these initiatives as a framework for its own advocacy work for our members.

Each month we will talk about these initiatives and give you an update on what is being done on the federal, state and local levels:

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

The Business Council supports Empire State Development's Strategic Workforce Development initiative and a renewed focus on meeting employer's immediate workforce needs, as well as the promotion of other "up skilling" programs such as microcredential programs. The Business Council also supports the efforts and legislation to diversify the workforce and create a high school-college-career pipeline (with which your Chamber is already strongly involved—PTECH, CTE, FM, etc.) Increasing opportunities for second chance hiring also remains on the Business Council's agenda.

Microcredentials

In early 2022, Gov. Kathy Hochul announced the expansion of fast and flexible learning options with more than 400 microcredentials across 31 SUNY campuses to help everyone from current students to working professionals gain skills, knowledge and experience that employers are looking for. Microcredentials are designed to be completed in a shorter timeframe than a college degree, taking one or two semesters, rather than years, to complete, and providing immediate evidence of skills mastered via a college transcript or digital badge.

SUNY's microcredentials are in high-demand fields including healthcare, business, education, clean energy, information technology, criminal justice, and advanced manufacturing. Every microcredential provides immediate, workforce-ready skills, and most (64%) offer academic credits toward another microcredential, certificate, or an initial or advanced degree. SUNY campuses can customize microcredentials to help meet the workforce needs of businesses, school districts, or community organizations.

Fulton-Montgomery Community College offers microcredentials that can strengthen a student's (or employee's) skill set, teach a new skill set, and keep people current and competitive in the workforce. At FM, microcredentials are made up of a series of between two and four credit-bearing courses. After successfully completing these courses, students will earn a "badge" in any number of areas including Accounting and Finance, Computer Science, Medical Coding, Medical Office Representative, Chemical Abuse Counseling, Multiculturalism and Diversity, Homeland Security, Law Enforcement, Psychology of Criminal Behavior, among many others. Badges are visual endorsements of mastery and verify the achievement of particular proficiencies.

To find out more about microcredentials available at FM, please contact the college's Admissions Office at (518) 736-3622 ext. 8301.

Second Chance Hiring

On its website, The U.S. Chamber of Commerce explains that, "Second chance hiring is the practice of hiring individuals with a criminal record. Second chance hiring is not only altruistic, but it also taps into a massive source of talent that many businesses can benefit from. There are an estimated 70 million Americans with arrest or conviction records that create significant barriers to reintegration into society." <https://www.uschamber.com/co/run/human-resources/second-chance-hiring>

Large businesses and brands have updated hiring practices to include second chance hiring. For small businesses, second chance hiring could be valuable as you look for employees in the current, highly competitive job market. The Second Chance Business Coalition is a cross-sector coalition of large private-sector firms committed to expanding second chance hiring and advancement practices within their companies. Find out more about this group and their work here: <https://secondchancebusinesscoalition.org/why-it-matters>

About second chance hiring, The Business Council states, "Inclusive hiring of individuals with a criminal record is a powerful way to break the cycles of poverty and incarceration that are all too familiar in many American communities. By offering second chance opportunities, individuals and families can strengthen their financial health and contribute to community stabilization. Stronger communities create stronger local economies, enhancing the business climate for all companies." The Business Council has a Second Chance Hiring Fact Sheet which can be accessed here. More information about The Business Council's Second Chance Initiatives can be found on their website: <https://www.bcnys.org/second-chance-initiatives>

The Chamber's Governmental Affairs Committee is chaired by David Jankowski of Joley Re Holding Corp. and meets quarterly. If you're interested in getting involved with this important committee, please consider joining them at their meetings at the Chamber office in Gloversville. For more information contact the Chamber at anneb@fultonmontgomeryny.org or call (518)725-0641.

GODERIE TREE FARM HOSTS SUMMER CHRISTMAS TREE FARM CONFERENCE

Goderie's Tree Farm hosted the summer meeting of the Christmas Tree Farmers Association of New York State from July 21 through 23. The organization was also celebrating its 70th anniversary at the events. The Chamber was happy to help welcome over 60 NYS Christmas Tree Farmers to our region for the conference. There are a total of 250 tree farm members of the association, and 800 total Christmas tree farmers in New York State!

The conference began on Friday, when attendees toured three other tree farms in the region. Saturday and Sunday featured breakout sessions on growing, the business of tree farming, and wreath and holiday decorating. There was also a dinner on Saturday capped off by an equipment auction and raising money for scholarships. There were also supply and equipment vendors on hand throughout the conference.

Saturday's session was kicked off by Mike and Pete Goderie, brothers who are the fourth generation of Goderie farmers. In 2020, Goderie's Tree Farm celebrated fifty years in business, but the family's history goes back to Pete and Mike's great grandfather, who purchased the land for their current location in 1939 after their Northampton farm was flooded to create the Great Sacandaga Lake. At the time, the land served as a small family farm with a sawmill and farm animals. In 1970 C. Peter Goderie, Mike and Pete's father, turned the land into a Christmas tree farm to help put his sons through college.

Peter and Mike have been managing the tree farm since 1983 when they took it over from their parents. Today, they continue the family tradition while adding some modern innovations. The 250-acre farm and nursery produce trees for the holiday season as well as evergreens, hardwoods and flowering trees for landscaping. The farm's two nurseries supply local restaurants with fresh produce, a hop yard has supplied local breweries and cideries, they offer blueberries to pick, and they have invested in solar modules that power all of the farm buildings. Their award-winning wreaths have graced the doors of the Executive Mansion and governor's offices in Albany and NYC and their trees have been at Times Square holiday events.

The Goderie Family is proud to also be able to pass on their time-honored tradition to Pete's son, Jared, now 5th generation Goderie to continue this important business in our community!

(cont. from cover story) Canajoharie Superintendent Nick Fitzgerald says of the partnership, "The partnership between the Chamber and the Canajoharie Central School District is positive, thriving, proactive and the catalyst needed to ensure the Teacher Residency program and eventually the High School Academies, becomes a reality for our district and in turn our students."

"The evolution of the workplace has progressed so rapidly over the past decade and will progress even faster in the coming years. The Canajoharie CSD wants to ensure that we are transitioning our instructional methods to fit that progression so our students have the best opportunity to be successful after high school. We have to think of what the world will look like for our Kindergarten class, the class of 2036, and instruct in a manner that fits the workplace in the future. That is a tall task because 85% of the jobs in 2036 do not exist today and the technology has not been developed yet. So the district has decided to put teachers in the workplace to see what competencies and skills our students will need now and in the future."

"The teacher residents will perform a number of internships this school year, report back to administration, faculty and staff on what they observed, mirror students in the classroom, and help share ideas that will shift instruction to the next generation. We will then develop relationships with those companies so we can start our high school academies in 2024-25 where students will choose a pathway when they enter 9th grade and then shadow in their junior year and perform an internship their senior year in the pathway area they choose. This will help give our students real-world experience, ownership in their education, and possibly set them up for jobs and careers in the future."

Workforce Development Director Nicole Walrath said of the partnership, "We are looking to bridge the gap to ensure we are meeting the needs of the workforce with the academies and programming offered within the district. Our partnership with Canajoharie CSD is vital to the success of our region and this groundbreaking initiative will allow teachers to forge relationships within the community."

The Chamber is currently looking for four internship sites for Canajoharie's Educator Residency Program. Each teacher will be at two different sites, twice a week. We are looking for businesses to host teachers in the following four sectors: business, digital communications, food services/hospitality and medical/health science. During their time in the workplace, teachers will gain a better understanding of the real-world opportunity's internships have to including gaining exposure, developing professional skills, networking, etc. Teachers will take the professional skills learned back to the classroom where it will become the norm and culture of the school. Professional skills or employability skills needed in the current workforce include time management, attendance, confidence, motivation, empathy, accountability, etc. To get involved, contact Nicole or Natalie at the Chamber.

Your Chamber's Business Education Partnership is looking for businesses to get involved with programs such as HFM PTECH (Pathways in Technology Early College High School), Career and Technical Education (at HFM BOCES), and Pathway Programs (specific school district freshmen through HFM BOCES). ## Business Resources You Can Use:

CONNECT WITH A BUSINESS MENTOR TO START OR GROW YOUR BUSINESS

As a member of the Chamber, you know how much mentors impact the lives of students in our PTECH and CTE programs, and how important these connections are for both these students and for those businesses and businesspeople involved with the program. You can make important business connections with mentors, or become a business mentor yourself, through two valuable, FREE programs: Business Mentor NY, powered by MicroMentor and SCORE of Northeast NY.

Business mentoring is a process in which experienced entrepreneurs and business professionals provide council, advice and support to emerging entrepreneurs in a structured relationship. This can take a variety of forms, ranging from helping to organize ideas and providing encouragement to resolving specific technical issues. MicroMentor, an online business mentoring program, on its website reports, “Mentored entrepreneurs are more likely to report improvements in their entrepreneurial skills, access to resources, and ability to create and retain jobs.” Research shows that through business mentorship, entrepreneurs can find success. We have listed here some helpful information about Business Mentor NY and SCORE to get you started:

Business Mentor NY, a program of Empire State Development, is a free, easy-to-use social network that allows entrepreneurs and volunteer business mentors to connect so they can solve problems and build businesses together. Small businesses (under 100 employees) are invited to join this growing online community that has already enabled thousands of mentor-mentee matches and continues to make an impact through the power of mentoring to help small businesses thrive. Business Mentor NY is powered by MicroMentor, the world’s largest community of entrepreneurs and volunteer business mentors.

In addition to finding business mentors for you and your business, you can sign up on the Business Mentor NY website to become a business mentor yourself. For either service, the process is simple:

Visit bmny.micromentor.org/ and create a profile that will include information about you and your business, in order to show mentors involved with the program what you need help with.

Explore profiles of mentors who have the experience, background, and knowledge that you are looking for.

Connect with potential mentors by messaging them. Start a conversation to see if they are the right mentor for you.

Once you find the right fit for a mentor, you can ask them questions, share information and more.

The MicroMentor program website

(www.micromentor.org) also includes information about best practices for using the program, qualities of good mentoring relationships, and more.

SCORE of Northeast NY is a group of experienced business professionals who provide guidance to those desiring to start a new small business or to assist existing small businesses in improving their profitability. SCORE provides the following services that can be accessed via their website – score.org

Free, confidential business mentoring in person, via email, or by video

Free business tools, templates and tips online on their website

Inexpensive or free business workshops (locally) and webinars (online 24/7)

Signup is similar to that of Business Mentor NY – go to score.org, enter zip code so that the organization can hone in on your location (Northeast NY), fill out a business profile so that SCORE can see what your wants and needs are for your business, request a mentor and find someone who fits your profile, and then schedule your first session. You can even see profiles of mentors in the Northeast NY area and what their specialties are (new business help, retail, online, etc.).

SCORE has numerous helpful free and low-cost live and recorded workshops. Some of the examples of a recent workshop schedule included: How to Start a Food Truck Business; How to Effectively Use Artificial Intelligence in Your Business; Tips for Running a Successful Business for Creative Types, Idea People, and Anybody with Passion; and Brand Clarity: Make Your Marketing Easy & Effective. They have helpful online tools and templates including a Financial Projections Template, Business Planning & Financial Statements Templates, and a SCORE Startup Roadmap for starting a business.

Grow your business, as well as yourself, by taking advantage of the valuable Business Mentor NY program and/or SCORE programs at the websites listed above. Please contact the Chamber if you have any questions or need assistance with either of these programs: info@fultonmontgomeryny.org or call (518) 725-0641.

Sponsors will receive various opportunities for publicity and recognition, as well as the chance to support the Chamber Scholarship Program and other business programs that serve the regional community. All sponsors will be recognized in several ways, including in a program given out to each golfer, on the golf course, in local print media, and in the Chamber's social media outlets. Several sponsor levels also include complimentary golfer slots in the event.

Golfers will receive a signature souvenir gift, as well as breakfast treats, a barbecue-style lunch served hot from the grill on the course, beverages on the course, an hors d'oeuvres hour immediately after play, and dinner. Awards will be given for the lowest-scoring foursomes, as well as to contest winners. Individual golfers may join the tournament for $150.

CHAMBER AWARDS $4K IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL STUDENTS

Money raised at Chamber's Golf Classic Continues to Make Scholarship Program Possible

Four worthy seniors from local high schools were awarded $1,000 each in scholarship money by the Fulton Montgomery Regional Chamber of Commerce.

The Scholarship Program was established in 1986 to provide financial assistance and incentives to students interested in pursuing a course of college study. To be eligible, a student must be a high school senior graduating from a Fulton or Montgomery County high school in June 2023, or applicants who have previously graduated from a Fulton or Montgomery County high school. Applicants must also be attending or entering a 2- or 4-year college or university as of September 2023.

The students were chosen for the awards by the Chamber's Scholarship Committee, based on the applicant's academic achievement, leadership positions, community involvement, economic needs, and essay. Personal interviews were also conducted with finalists as part of the awards process.

The scholarship winners are:

Tyler Couture graduated with a 101 GPA and a Comprehensive Regents Diploma from Fonda-Fultonville High School. He was on the Principal's List, Valedictorian of his class, and scored 1500 on his SATs, placing him in the 95th percentile.

Active in school activities and the community, Tyler participates in the National Honor Society, Key Club, Robotics Club, Skype Club, Creative Connections Clubhouse, NYS Governor's Youth Council, Montgomery County Youth Day, and food drop-off in Amsterdam. He has a passion for music and was involved in the Wind Ensemble, Select Chorus, Fonda-Fultonville Theatrical Company, Marching Band, All County, and Concert Band.

He plans to attend Colgate University in the fall, majoring in political science with future plans to attend law school. He wants to have an honorable legacy as a great leader; his career goal is to be a politician with the ultimate goal to serve as the president of the United States.

Emmalee Carpenter was Amsterdam High School's Salutatorian with a 99.8 GPA. During her high school career, she completed multiple courses at FMCC and made the Honor Roll there in 2021 and 2022. Emmalee not only succeeded at FMCC, but at her home school as well, appearing on the Honor Roll since 2019. She has been the Treasurer for the Amsterdam Marching Rams since 2019 and received the Treasurer Award for her efforts. She has participated in the Mohawk Valley Chamber Ensemble since 2019 and, since 2021, has been the Treasurer of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. |

Emmalee plans on attending the Rochester Institute of Technology to work towards both a bachelor and master degrees in computing security through a 5-year program.

Ethan Brott graduated as valedictorian and AP scholar with honors from Broadalbin-Perth High School. He is a participant in the character-building activities in his advisory class, the Math League, and the National Honor Society. He was awarded the National Rural and Small Town Recognition Award by the College Board, the University of Rochester Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award, and the St. Michael's College Book Award.

Ethan participated in Concert Band, Jazz Band, Pep Band, Marching band, eSports, Varsity and Junior Varsity Soccer, Club Soccer, Tennis Club, and coaching the Broadalbin Youth Commission Soccer.

Ethan plans to obtain a bachelor's degree in Biochemistry at the University of Rochester, and plans to continue his studies to become a pediatrician.

Tyler Downing graduated from Johnstown High School with an Advanced Regents Diploma and a 94 GPA. In his high school career, he has received the Student of the Quarter for English and The English 9 Award. Tyler has been accepted to the University of Buffalo for the fall semester.

By his teachers, Tyler is referred to as a committed leader and one of the hardest-working students in recent history at Johnstown High. Leading by example, he has spearheaded the school district's backpack program, spending 100 hours, mostly anonymously, providing food to needy families. Tyler participated in the Science Club, Masterminds, and the National Honor Society.

Also active in sports, he participated in track and soccer, and as captain for Nordic ski, XC running, and travel baseball for the Amsterdam Titans. He was the scorekeeper for the elementary, modified, and varsity basketball teams.
