By entering this Website you expressly agree that you understand the terms of the Privacy Policy.

Thank you for visiting ohioinsurance.org (the “Website”) and reviewing our Website privacy policy (“Privacy Policy”). The following Privacy Policy is applicable to all personal information collected by or through the Website by the Ohio Insurance Institute (“OII,” “we,” “us,” or “our”). The terms “you” and “your” refer to the visitors to or users of our Website.

Information Collected Online

1. Personal Information: We do not collect personal information about you when you visit our Website unless you choose to provide it. If you choose to provide personal information, either by e-mail, registering, or by filling out a form and submitting it to us through our Website, we may collect personal information such as your name, postal address, telephone number, and email address. OII in no way guarantees the security or confidentiality of any communication, or information contained therein, regardless of the manner of delivery or receipt.

2. Navigational Information: When you access our Website, we collect navigational information, such as browser type and version, service-provider identification, IP address, the site or online service from which you came, and the site or online service to which you navigate.

3. Cookies: Some pages on our Website employ “cookies.” For the purposes of our Website, a cookie is a small file that your web browser transfers to your device to allow the server to “remember” specific information about your session while you are connected. Requests to send cookies are not designed to collect information about you, but only about your “browser session.” The cookies make it easier for you to use the dynamic features of this site. Most Internet browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you prefer, you may set your browser so that it refuses cookies or alerts you when cookies are being created on your hard drive. You should be aware though that, by not accepting cookies, you may impair your ability to use certain password-protected areas of this Website.

How We Use Information Collected Online

If you choose to provide us personal information, we may use your information: to respond to your inquiries and fulfill your request(s); to provide you materials you have requested; to provide you insurance and safety-related information you have requested; to process your registration(s); to send you information we think may be of interest to you; to send you information regarding your membership or registration(s); to update membership records; to personalize your experience on the Website; and for our internal business purpose, such as data analysis, developing new services, or improving the Website.

We use information collected through cookies and similar technology for many of these same purposes. In addition, cookies and similar technology are used for things like personalizing your experience on our Website and determining return visitors. We also use third-party analytics providers to measure traffic and usage trends and to help us better understand your use of and interaction with the Website.

Sharing and Disclosure of Information Collected Online

We do not disclose, give, sell, or transfer any personal information about you, except as described below:

1. Service Providers: We may share personal information with our third-party services providers that provide services to us, such as data analytics, order fulfillment, registration services, Website operations, email delivery, and other similar services.

2. Legal Process: OII may be required to release personal information by law, to comply with legal process, to participate in a legal proceeding either contemplated or actually filed, to respond to a court order or based on our good faith belief that it is necessary to comply with the law, or to protect the legal rights of OII, Website users, or the general public.

3. Sale or Merger: If we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business assets or merge with another company, we may also share your information with the other company.

Security

Please note that e-mail is not necessarily secure against interception. If your message is of a sensitive nature, you can send it by mail to: The Ohio Insurance Institute, 172 E. State St. Suite 201, Columbus OH 43215.

OII in no way guarantees the security or confidentiality of any communication, or information contained therein, regardless of the manner of delivery or receipt. OII is not responsible for the accidental or negligent release of information collected through the Website, and is not responsible for malicious access to information collected through the Website.

Links to Other Sites

In some instances, we provide links to other websites not affiliated with OII. However, OII is not responsible for the content or policies of third-party websites. Please check with these third-party organizations or companies for their specific privacy policies.

Contact us if you find inoperable links or are concerned with any of the website links that are referenced or sourced on our Website.

Notification of Policy Changes

This Privacy Policy is posted on the Website. We reserve the right, at our discretion, to update, revise, add to, remove, or otherwise modify the Privacy Policy. If at any time we modify this Privacy Policy, we will update this document, and modifications will be effective immediately upon posting to the Website. We encourage you to periodically check our Privacy Policy for updates.

For Other Questions or Comments
