75TH SAILING SEASON BEGINS

The Ten Mile Lake sailing season officially begins Saturday, June 29, with a full line-up of beginner sailing clinics -- and races for more experienced sailors.

Our club began back in 1938, so we have a lot planned for our 75th year. On June 29th -- the beginning of the Fourth of July week -- we'll hold the tune-up race to get our sea legs back and to make sure our boats are rigged and tuned properly.

Then on Sunday (June 30), weather permitting, we'll hold the first in a series of informal sailing clinics in Sunfish sailboats beginning at 11 a.m. on the Moos dock. These classes are led by volunteers -- if you're interested, please email the commodore so we can secure enough instructors and boats. Clinics are also scheduled for Sunday, July 21, and Sunday, Aug. 4.

For experienced sailors, our races begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. In case of foul weather, the races will be held at 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

2013 Sailing Schedule

June 29	Tune-up Race
July 6	Fourth of July Regatta
July 13	Series race
July 20	Memorial Cup Regatta
Aug. 3	Moxness Cup Regatta
Aug. 10	End of the Summer Regatta

Thanks to committee boat volunteers, photographers

Many thanks to our intrepid committee boat volunteers, led by Rear Admiral Dick Staunton and lieutenants Ed "Pete" Crandall, Tim Lokken and Hannah Moos.

We're always looking for more volunteers to fill in. It's a great way to learn about sailing and you have the best viewing point on the lake. If interested, email the Commodore (grant_moos@earthlink.net).

Thanks also to the many photographers -- including Hannah Moos and Pete Roberts -- who contribute photos for our newsletters and website.

If others have any photos, please send them to us so we can add them to our photo gallery.

Ten Mile Lake Sailing Club clinics begin June 30

We'll be holding three beginning small boat sailing clinics this summer for anyone who is interested in learning to sail. The clinics will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. on the Moos dock on the northwest shore of Ten Mile on June 30, July 21 and Aug. 4.

If you're interested, please email Commodore Grant Moos (grant_moos@earthlink.net) in advance so we can make sure we have enough boats on hand to accommodate everyone.

We have a Sailfish, Sunfish, Snark and a Johnson Mini-scow, and probably secure a few more boats if needed.

Emma Olsen-Dufour takes the helm under the direction of Sub-commodore Pete Roberts in 2012.

The clinics -- which are taught by sailing club volunteers and neighbors -- are weather dependent. So the times could change at the last minute.

We held two small boat clinics last summer in addition to several on-water sessions on the larger, C-boats (above). So sign up today and join in the fun.

For updates on the clinics, visit our website at www.tmlsailingclub.org.

Exclusive Sailing Club attire

To mark the 75th year of competitive sailing on Ten Mile Lake, Rear Admiral Dick Staunton, has a new line-up of Ten Mile Lake Yacht Club gear this season.

He'll be unveiling his new 2013 line at the sailing season kickoff party, June 29.

Hoffman, Roberts shine in 2012

Ki Hoffman won every regatta he entered in 2012 – the Fourth of July, Memorial Cup and the End of the Summer regattas.

Pete Roberts was nearly as efficient with second place finishes in the Fourth of July and Memorial Cup, and a third in the Moxness Cup.

But like the tortoise and the hare – by completing all four of our trophy races – Grant Moos won the Summer Series in 2012.

Pete finished second overall and Bob Crabb was third in the series.

It should also be noted that Mimi (Garbisch) Carlson, after a several-year hiatus, won the Moxness Cup, our most prestigious race of the season.

The 2012 season ended on an exciting note when we began the race in 17 mile-per-hour winds, only to have them build from there. The Crabb boat headed in for the day, leaving five boats at the starting line.

But just three finished: the Hoffmans in first, followed by Grant Moos and Geoff Cox. Pete Roberts and Andy Nelson both capsized. Many thanks to Jeff Manlove and Tom Brandt for their help in rescuing our fleet.

See our Website \(www.tmlsailingclub.org\) for complete race results.

Join the sailing kickoff party at the Moos cabin

All sailors -- and those interested in learning more about sailing -- are encouraged to come to the annual sailing kickoff party on Saturday, June 29, at the Moos cabin.

The party will begin at about 4:30 p.m. -- shortly after the afternoon races end. We'll discuss the upcoming sailing season and our plans to hold sailing classes this summer.

The Moos cabin (4503 Alder Lane) is about a quarter mile north of Gainey's Point on the northwest shore. This is our 75th year of regatta sailing on Ten Mile Lake so it's sure to be a special year.

We've been having fun on the water since 1938. And we're always welcoming new sailors to the club.

Check out our website at www.tmlsailingclub.org for more information, and to get on our mailing list for regular updates.

We hope to see everyone out on the lake in June, if not before.
