2017 SAILING SEASON BEGINS

The 2017 Ten Mile Lake sailing season begins with Fourth of July Race on July 1 followed by the Memorial Cup the next Saturday on July 8.

Having the races on back-to-back weekends gives us the best chance that people who come to the lake that week can participate in two races.

We'll do the same thing for the Moxness Cup and End of the Summer race. Those races will be on July 29 and Aug. 5 respectively.

There are two open weekend Saturdays on the schedule – July 15 and July 22 – that we'll reserve for make-up races and our ongoing sailing clinics, depending upon interest.

As usual, the first race begins at 1:30 p.m. In case of foul weather or no wind, the races will be held at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. If you have any questions, email the commodore.

Until then, get your boats tuned and we'll see you July 1.

2017 Sailing Schedule

July 1	Fourth of July Regatta
July 8	Memorial Cup
July 29	Moxness Cup
Aug. 5	End of Summer

Stay tuned for the sailing kick-off party

Because our fourth grandbaby is due June 29 (Hannah, a veteran committee boat volunteer, and Ben, a sailor from the East), I'm holding off on scheduling the annual kick-off party.

But I will let everyone know as soon as this baby girl decides when she is ready to make her debut. Earl the 1950s as the self-appointed commodore.

Looking for Committee Boat volunteers

Thanks to all the Committee Boat volunteers – particularly Rear Admiral Dick Staunton – who have served on the Committee Boat over the years.

We're always looking for more help. If you would like to help, email the commodore. Your help would be greatly appreciated!

TM 9 sails again

Welcome back TM9 into the active Ten Mile Lake sailing fleet after a decade-long hiatus.

Ben Brandt, son of George and Sue Brandt on Pencil Point by the entrance to Long Bay, is the proud new owner of the boat that was long sailed by his great uncle and former commodore, Dave Brandt, who passed away in 2005.

As anyone who knew Dave would expect, the boat was meticulously stored away and in great shape. Pete Roberts and Grant Moos helped Ben get the boat rigged and ready to go.

So look for Ben to carry on the proud tradition of TM9 and the Brandt clan this summer.

Hoffmans win 2014 Summer Series

The emergence of the next generation of sailors marked the 2014 sailing season. In the opening Fourth of July regatta, Bri Hoffman, with her dad as crew, sailed to a first and second finish.

And Mariah Crabb, with Pete Roberts as crew, sailed to a second and third.

Had Bri not been penalized 100 points for hitting a buoy, Bri would have finished first overall. But that penalty vaulted Grant Moos, who sailed to first and fourth-place finishes, into the top spot, followed by Mariah and Bri.

That was the only race, however, where we could field enough “next generation skippers” to hold a fair and competitive race.

The remaining races were all won by Ki, with his father Byron as crew. That gave the Hoffman family enough points to win the Ten Mile Lake Summer Series trophy.

We hope to field more “next generation” races this summer where veteran skippers crew for our newer – generally younger – skippers.

C-boat for sale

Dave Pasley, the owner of TM81/38 on the south shore of Ten Mile, is looking to sell his C-boat.

Dave believes it's a 1996 Johnson and is in pretty good shape. It may need some new lines. He's asking $500. He'd like to see the boat stay on the lake and continue to race.

You can reach Dave at dpasley@opticalmechanics.com.

Ten Mile Sauna & Boutique

Rear Admiral Dick Staunton's Sauna & Boutique has expanded its line of lake wear with the addition this season of hooded sweatshirts.

And Dick still has many items from his earlier collection of polo shirts, belts, burgees, and cups, among others.

You can contact Dick directly at rksmiami@bellsouth.net.

Sailing kickoff party July 4 at Moos cabin

The kickoff of the 2015 sailing season begins Saturday, July 4, at the Moos cabin at about 4:30 p.m. – shortly after the races end.

All sailors, friends of sailors, and anyone who has ever seen a sailboat, are welcome.

We're at 4503 Alder Lane on the northwest shore about a quarter mile north of Gainey's Point. Check out our website at www.tmlsailingclub.org for more information, and to get on our mailing list for regular updates.

We hope to see everyone at the party – or even before out on the lake.
