WELCOME TO EDGEBROOK~SAUGANASH

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Since 2017, the Edgebrook Sauganash Chamber of Commerce has represented the interests of the business districts of both Edgebrook and Sauganash. We've been here to guide businesses through the red tape of city licensing and permitting, to market our neighborhoods, and to encourage patrons to support local entrepreneurs instead of spending in the suburbs.

Over the past few years, Chicago has seen many businesses close their doors. We have been fortunate in both Edgebrook and Sauganash that you and your neighbors have been so supportive of local businesses. I'd like to personally thank you because you are the reason our neighborhood businesses have survived. The Chamber will continue working to attract new businesses to fill vacant storefronts, to invest in our local businesses, to bring a renewal to Devon, Central, Peterson, and Cicero. I'm confident that with your support, our businesses will not only recover, but grow.

In fact, since 2020, we've seen more than 70 businesses open in our area. There's something about our community that you just can't find anywhere else. We care deeply about our neighborhood and want to be proud of our 'Main Street'. The uniqueness of our business districts is part of our charm – in each corridor you can find small businesses, most of which are run by people who live in the neighborhood or have a strong connection to it.

What would you like to see when you walk, or drive, down the main streets of Edgebrook and Sauganash? Let the Chamber know; we want to build the 'downtown' that you imagine.

There is still work to do, but the future of Edgebrook and Sauganash is bright.

Let's build a better business district together,

Nick Haak

SAUGANASH SPECIAL SERVICE AREA #62

The Sauganash Special Service Area (SSA) encompasses the Peterson and Cicero corridors of the Sauganash business district where property owners voluntarily contribute to a community improvement fund. This self-imposed tax levy generates $75,000 per year for community improvements within this area of Sauganash. A team of volunteer commissioners work with the Edgebrook~Sauganash Chamber of Commerce to invest these dollars in large-scale business district beautification initiatives.

The SSA Commission's vision is to create a gateway to the Sauganash business community by attracting commercial development, enhancing existing retail/service space and providing a safe, attractive, friendly and hassle-free experience for pedestrians, cyclists, commuters, shoppers, residents and local workers.

Since its establishment in 2014, the Sauganash SSA Commission has invested over $600,000 in beautification initiatives, hardscape improvements, and marketing efforts. The area has been transformed by the SSA's landscaping, decorative lighting, community identifier monuments, and public art.

Commissioners

Pat Tarpey – The Chairman of the Sauganash SSA Commission, Pat is the owner of Tarpey's Pharmacy, a staple in Sauganash for over 49 years. Pat is a hands-on business owner who can be seen daily serving the Edgebrook and Sauganash communities.

Mario Correa – A former President of the Logan Square Chamber of Commerce, Mario manages Correa Law in Sauganash, an award-winning firm specializing in wills, trusts, and estate planning.

Marcia Jimenez – Director of Intergovernmental Affairs at Swedish Hospital, Marcia previously served as the Commissioner for the Chicago Department of the Environment. Marcia serves as the head of the SSA Beautification Committee.

Alfred Klairmont – President of Imperial Realty, Al oversees a portfolio of over 80 properties, including many in Sauganash, across Chicago, and in surrounding suburbs. Al is a founding Director of the Sauganash Chamber of Commerce. A 2007 inductee into the Chicago Area Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame and 2015 inductee into the Chicago Association of Realtors Hall of Fame, Al has lent his business acumen to the SSA Commission since 2014.

Kelly Smith – Kelly is the fourth generation of the Smith family to aid the community in their times of loss through her work at Smith-Corcoran Funeral Home. Kelly brings a wide range of knowledge, expertise, and acute awareness of the needs of the Sauganash community to the SSA Commission.

We are uniquely connected!

Whether you arrive by train, car, on foot or “over the river and through the woods” on your bicycle, you’ll find Edgebrook~Sauganash to be a uniquely beautiful and exquisitely located community.
