Chamber Endorses Harris and Rowlett for Vacaville Mayor

The Vacaville Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors has opted to endorse two candidates for mayor – Councilmember Dilenna Harris and Councilmember Ron Rowlett. The decision to endorse followed a community candidate forum hosted by the Vacaville Business and Community Political Action Committee.

Both have established solid leadership skills and proven track records supporting the interests of the business community, which is why the Vacaville Chamber endorsed them for City Council in 2016 and why they have won endorsement again, this time for the post of mayor in this election cycle.

Their commitment to community service is evident and commendable. The Vacaville Chamber of Commerce is eager to work with elected representatives who support the chamber's mission and believe in investing in Vacaville's economic viability.
