

THE 2011 TALI AGENCY FORMS FOR MEMBERS ONLY

*Confidential information for the distribution and use of current TALI members only. These are forms used currently by practicing investigators. However, you should review them carefully prior to your use. In some cases, such as the traditional legal documents you might want to consult your attorney to insure it is appropriate for your company.

All employees in case of abuse of company equipment sign the following agreement:

EQUIPMENT AGREEMENT

The undersigned does hereby understand that all video and camera equipment, badges and identification cases, computers, or other equipment furnished by (Your company name) is entrusted to the investigator for the sole benefit of (Your company name). The undersigned does also understand that all equipment which is mishandled, abused, or damaged due to the undersigned's negligence will result in the repairs or replacement thereof being deducted from the employee's payroll. In addition, any or all equipment lost or stolen while in the possession of the under-signed will be replaced by withholding the amount from the employee's payroll. If insurance coverage applies, the employee may be only subject to reimbursement of the deductible or other costs not covered by the insurance carrier.
